Legislative Journal.

Session 1937. 132d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 21. HARRISBURG, Pa., SATURDAY, JUNE 5, 1937. No. 72.

SENATE

SATURDAY, June 5, 1937.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The President (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. GEORGE WALKER BUCKNER, LLD, offered the following prayer:

Hallowed be Thy name, O God, and hallowed be this hour! We are near the parting of the ways, and places which know us now, soon will know us no more. For fellowships of recent months we offer grateful praise. For mutual appreciations, which break the bonds of party ties, for the alchemy of friendship and frankness, we thank thee. Bless every member of this Body, every man or woman who has wrought here as a steward of the State. And now Father, we offer to Thy hands the imperfect fabric of our own. Yet it has faced the tests of inquiry, the scrutiny of many eyes; the challenge of intelligent opposition. We have sought to exalt the humanities of life. Under Thee it is our fervent hope that it may bring sunshine to dark corners of penury and despair; repress tears and sighs, and feed some hungry mouths; shelter the homeless, cheer the crippled and the blind; steady the tottering steps of the aged, afford security to the widow and the orphan, stranded on the shores of time. Overrule our errors, in Thy wisdom and goodness, and give our faulty work the blessing of Thy faultless touch.

And now, may the grace of our Lord, the boundless love of God, the rich fellowship of Thy Good Spirit attend our ways and abide with us forever. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT—A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. FREY, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Section 39 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I am sorry that I cannot support this bill as it has come from the conference committee. There are features with which I cannot agree. I understand that the purpose of this bill was to provide a means of enabling farm areas and small communities to obtain electric current for light and power, which is now denied them. I am in accord with this purpose. But the bill goes much further. It provides that a cooperative association formed under this bill may not only run electric lines at will regardless of the fact that the territory may be well served by public utility lines, with rates fixed by the Public Utility Commission, and that the cooperative may condemn electric lines and all other property of such companies or any part of such property, but it also provides that the cooperative association may condemn private dwellings, churches, grave yards, and such property heretofore considered exempt from condemnation.

There are various areas in this State which deserve help in securing rural electrification, but the simple rules of business apply to the extension of electric lines as well as to all other activities. Unless the government determines that it shall permanently adopt a plan of perennial subsidies to supply outlying customers with electric current, a cooperative agency cannot supply all such customers except at a great loss, any more than can a public utility.

Perhaps this bill is merely the beginning of a comprehensive plan for government ownership of all public utilities to be followed by government ownership of all business. The trend of legislation in this session is very much toward the establishment of a totalitarian state, with the people serving merely as serfs of the government.

When the mass of laws which we have enacted here in a few months time is digested and the effect thereof discovered, the people of Pennsylvania will find that they have surrendered a great many of their liberties to the deadly hand of bureaucracy and that personal and political independence is almost gone.

Certain sides of this question of rural electrification have been overlooked. For instance we find that there has been a very steady advance in the past years toward the extension of rural lines, under present laws.

Pennsylvania is surpassed by only four states in the number of farms served by electricity, yet during 1936 there were being built additional electric lines into farm areas, which would reach in the aggregate from New York to Denver and beyond. Likewise many farms to which electric current is available are not using such current.

The United States Census of Farms in Pennsylvania for 1935 lists 191,284 farms. Taken on this number, the farms which have no occupied dwellings, the farms which have no dwellings at all, and those farms which are considered as sub-marginal, or farms without proper dwellings, which produce only a bare sustenance for their occupants, there are 163,827 occupied farms in the State. of this number, slightly more than 88,000 have service at urban rates passing their doors, and 72,860 were taking service as of January 1, 1937. This indicates approximately 16,000 farms in the State which have electric service at urban rates passing their doors have not availed themselves of electric service.

In the City of Allentown there are 24,600 homes and yet in that built-up city, 2100 homes do not take electric service, although such service is within easy reach with no cost for connection.

In the City of Lancaster, one of the Federal agencies made a survey recently which shows that there are 16,600 dwellings units, and yet, within easy reach of electric service, more than 1400 of these dwelling units have not availed themselves of the service which is practically at their doors.

In the City of Chester there are said to be 1500 properties where service is available which have not attempted to secure electric service.

In the United States Census Statistics for 1935, it is reported that there were 33,927 farms occupied by tenants and on many of these farms the owners will not wire the houses and barns in order that the tenant farmers might avail themselves of electric service.

The businesslike extension of electric lines under this act may result in profit and advantage to customers but farmers should remember that the unrestrained formation of cooperatives under government sponsorship may result in sad disillusionment. I have in my possession a copy of a letter said to have been sent by the President of a cooperative association, located in the State of Texas, which illustrates this point.

BARTLETT COMMUNITY LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY

Bartlett, Texas, April 6, 1937

Dear Sir:

As you were advised last December, our cooperative electric system has not been doing as well. We have the lowest minimum rate of any rural line in the country but a number of our customers have not been using as much electricity as we had hoped.

For the past five months we have collected bearely enough money to pay REA and have been unable to pay the city anything. We have waited, hoping that the minimum users would do their share.

A meeting held Saturday, April 3rd had a attendance of about fifty of our customers. The matter was explained and fully discussed. The feeling at the meeting indicated that each customer was willing to do his share toward paying this debt and the following resolution was unanimously passed.

Resolved: That in order to meet the necessary expenses of operating the Company and to meet our obligations, it is necessary that each customer do his share; and

That the customer's rate be changed to read as follows:

First 25 kwh ..... $2.37 ($2.25 net)-Minimum
Next 40 kwh at 5c
Next 90 kwh at 3c
Excess kwh at 2c

subject to a 5% discount if bill is paid not later than the 10th of the month after billing date.

And Be It Further Resolved, That as soon as a surplus is accumulated, our rates be reduced.

Effective with the May 1937 billing the minimum rate for each customer will be raised to $2.25, however, for this amount he will receive 25 kwh instead of the former 7kwh.

We trust that this meets with the approval of all our customers.

Yours very truly,

BARTLETT COMMUNITY LIGHT AND POWER CO.

(S) by W. L. Janke, President
Robert Friedrick, Secy-Treasurer
E. J. Steglich, Vice-President

Note. 1. The original rate was: $1.10 per month first 7kwh or less; 7c per kwh next 13 kwh per mo.; 5.0c per kwh next 45 per mo.; 3.0c per kwh next 90 kwh per mo.; 2.0c per kwh excess. Prompt payment discount 5%

Note 2. This cooperative buys power from the municipal plant at Bartlett, Texas at a wholesale rate which is understood to be a straight line rate of 2c to 2½c per kwh the municipality handling the distribution losses on the lines of the cooperative, reading meters, collecting bills and maintaining lines and services.

As stated, while I am in favor of aiding those areas which are unsupplied with electric current to secure the same at reasonable rates, I am unable to vote for this bill in its present form.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

SENATE BILL NO. 1069 RETURNED FROM THE HOUSE WITH AMENDMENTS

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I call up at this time Senate Bill No. 1069 returned from the House with amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1069, entitled:

An Act relating to and regulating the mining of anthracite coal; providing for the health, safety and welfare of persons employed in and about the anthracite coal mines, and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith; amending, consolidating, revising and changing the law relating thereto; and imposing penalties.

Which was returned from the House of Representatives with amendments.

Said amendments having been twice read, and printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I ask that the Senate does not concur in the amendments to Senate Bill No. 1069.

In reference to this bill, which creates a new Anthracite Mine Code for the District which I represent, I introduced the bill on April 26th so that the present Code which is forty years old could be modernized and brought to date. In introducing this bill it was my purpose that I could in some way bring about better conditions for the men who are employed in the mines. There has been considerable controversy over this bill during the past several weeks. Arguments pro and con concerning the bill have been submitted by the United Mine Workers of America, the anthracite coal operators, and the Department of Mines.

Before this bill was introduced by me I was of the firm belief that the mine laws, so far as safety was concerned, should be revised, and in order that I might be sure that what I ask this body to pass upon favorably, I took into consultation ten of the present State mine inspectors of the anthracite regions. After careful study of the bill they were unanimous in their approval of the bill as a safety measure. I know of no body of men that are more competent than those same mine inspectors that could pass upon this subject.

This bill was prepared by the Department of Mines after months of study by the best mining men in the State. Mr. President, since this bill was reported from Committee it has been amended to such extent that it looks to me to be more a wage contract than the safety measure I intended it to be. Amendments that are now in the bill will serve to increase the cost of coal, which if passed on to the consumer will have the effect of losing more of the anthracite market; in turn causing more mines to be closed and throwing out of employment many more men. It is a well known fact that the anthracite industry is one of the hardest pressed in the State. Therefore, that we may act to the interest of the men and the industry, I ask you not to concur in the amendments.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to inquire whether or not a vote "no" is to nonconcur, and a vote "aye" is to concur in the House amendments, is that correct?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, that that is true.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I move that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, will state his question of information.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, is it not true to wait to see whether the House recedes from its amendments?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Susquehanna, Mr. Gelder, that this is a Senate bill, and the motion is perfectly in order. The House has requested us to do that in order to go about the business.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 1069

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insist upon its non-concurrence in the amendments to the foregoing bill, and that a Committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a similar Committee of the House (if the House shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. HENNEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, that Messrs. Dando, Haluska, Deitrick be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 856

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 856, entitled:

An Act providing that all appointments made by the county commissioners in counties of the first class shall be equally divided between the majority and minority commissioners, respectfully submit the following bill as our report.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The report was read as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 856

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purposes of considering Senate Bill No. 856, entitled "An Act providing that all appointments made by the county commissioners in counties of the first class shall be equally divided between the majority and minority commissioners," respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

An Act providing that all appointments made by the county commissioners in counties of the first class shall be divided between the majority and minority commissioners

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That

All appointments made by the county commissioners in counties of the first class shall be divided between the majority commissioners and the majority commissioner so that the majority commissioners shall name two-thirds of all the appointees and the minority commissioner shall name one-third of all the appointees The appointment to particular positions to be made by the majority and minority commissioners shall be determined by lot The term of employment of each person now employed under the county commissioners' office and having been originally appointed by the county commissioners shall cease as of the effective date of this act

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 3 This act shall become effective thirty days after final enactment

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to state that this bill is a bill that refers to patronage in the office of the county commissioners. The House amendment changes the proportion of one-third to the minority instead of one-half as before, so that each commissioner will have one-third of the appointments. The amendment also provides that the appointments shall be made by lot to be drawn by the county commissioner.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this is a bill that we had before us a few days ago, and the bill in its present form is not the bill that was voted down in this Senate. If that has been ripped out the body of the bill changed and the object to be attained is changed completely around, and I suggest to the Chair that he give a ruling on it, whether or not the Chair intends to allow this conference report to be voted on, because if I understand the parliamentary usages and customs of this body, a bill that comes back amended in a form completely different from its original form, it is not before this Senate. The entire title has been changed, and the body of the bill has been absolutely changed. I think when the bill was passed by the Senate, it was drawn as an amendment to the voting machine Act of 1939, providing, whereby in counties of the first class, all appointments with reference to the voting machine custodians shall be equally divided between the majority and the minority commissioners. This bill is the bill in which all the employees in this Department are subject to a division of two-thirds to the majority party and one-third to the minority. This is 100% different than the bill on which this Senate has voted, and I, therefore, move you that the report by the Conference Committee be laid on the table.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair understands that the Report of the Conference Committee is to be laid on the table. This committee report does not destroy the principle involved in the bill and the Chair rules that the Conference Committee Report, under parliamentary usuage in this Senate and House is perfectly in order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in decision No. 51, on page 199, of the Pennsylvania Manual for 1935-1936, it says:

"Mr. McCracken" submitted the point of order that the Committee of Conference, in amending the bill in certain particulars concerning which no differences existed between the two Houses, exceed the authority conferred upon it, in violation of joint rule three, which says that a Committee of Conference "shall not have power or control over any part of a bill, resolution or order, except such parts upon which a difference exists between the two Houses." The Senate decided the point of order not well taken."

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has ruled on the point of order, the Senator was not appeased by the decision. The Chair has ruled on the point of order, and that is not before the Senate.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I want to make a statement in regard to the bill.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, may proceed, but the point of order has been decided by the Chair.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I want to call to the attention of the members of this Senate to the fact that this does not change the original bill. The subject of the original bill was the division of appointments by the County Commissioners. The original bill amends all that. This bill merely prevents the Act from being declared unconstitutional, because in the meantime, during the probation of this bill, before the time of the final enactment of it, there was passed an election code, and, therefore, in order to save any question of constitutionality, and since the time that the election code was passed, the title of the bill was changed to make it supplemental instead of an amendatory act, and the conference committee reduces the appointments by the minority commission from one-half to one-third.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I renew my motion.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDENT. The motion is that the conference committee report be laid on the table.

The motion was not agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the Report?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this is one of the bills that came before this Senate in the 'ripper' campaign of 1937, and in this campaign somewhere, somehow, some one must have—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, is not speaking on the report of the conference committee, which is whether or not the amendment reduces the appointment from one-half to one-third shall be adopted.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears that in discussing the amendments, the speaker is privileged to discuss the subject of the bill amended by that amendment. The speaker may proceed.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do not blame some people that they do not like to hear the truth on some things. There is in this bill a sort of a—what will we call it—an inclination to be charitable, but this is a charity of a Jesse James, or of a Dillinger.

We oft-times heard, and I am talking only of this bill—of one of the redeeming features of Jesse James, and Abe Buzzard, the famous Pennsylvania outlaw was, that if they robbed a man, they always took some of the stolen money and gave him carefare to go back home. That may have been a different kind of highwaymen, burglars and outlaws, but they were charitable with the other fellows' money, and that is the kind of a charity we have here. Our friends of the opposition party have seen fit to come before this body and hold up the citizenship of Philadelphia and its voting population, and say, notwithstanding the fact that by your vote you have created certain positions in the City of Philadelphia, we, by an authority that no self-respecting person would, that, they gave to another, they decided to stand you up against the wall and rob your pockets, and say, "now that we have rifled your pockets, we are going before the Senate of Pennsylvania and say 'we are now pleading guilty, we took away 50% from you, we are pleading guilty, and we ask you to excuse us because we are trying to pay you back one-third of the loot, we are going to give you back one-third of that we have stolen from you, and then we think we have done our full duty towards our constituents." You cannot pay back your honest debt with the stolen money of a man whom you have robbed, you cannot pay back your political debts with stolen property which he has robbed from the voters in the City of Philadelphia, and after all, they are not being honest with themselves, because when the bill passed the Senate they are not so terrible, they only stole 30 jobs, but they went over to the House and the House joined the gang, and stole 70. When they had stolen 70 jobs belonging to the Republican organization, and 30 more, making it about 100, and then in the kindness of their hearts and with the other fellow's money, they come up before this body, pleading guilty, saying we "will give you back, and only take 33 1/3%," and in that division, in their honesty of purpose, instead of stealing 30 jobs, they have taken 33-1/3%, and when they got into an awful jam and they did not know how they were going to divide up that 1/3 of a man, than by a great reasoning they decided that they would draw lots and divide up the 1/3 that was over. These are great days of charity and we want to thank our Democratic friends over on the other side for even being honest enough to give us back one-third of the loot.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. I will but the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, should be sure to get the facts right.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, is it a fact that this bill established a new principle, namely to the "vanquished belongs the spoils."

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this bill as it is, establishes no principle, no bill built on dishonesty can establish any principle.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, whether he is not a member of the Board of Commissioners of Allegheny County?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, that is right.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, whether he is in favor of the principles set forth in this bill?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is the same question that was asked two days ago, and I object to it being repeated.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is not well taken.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, whether it is true that he is not in favor of the bill.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, no sir.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rankin, whether it is the practice of his board of commissioners to divide up the patronage between the minority and the majority commissioners?

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, no sir. Sometimes if we get a little hard up we give them a little bit, just a nibble.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, I would like to know if it is not true that this Act, No. 856, which we passed, is an amendment to the Act permitting the use of voting machines in Pennsylvania?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the original Act was an amendment to the voting machine Act.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, and it applies to the appointments of the majority and minority commissioners, instead of amending the voting machine act.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think that is correct.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, this conference report on which we are asked to vote, is that an amendment to that Act?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, no, the Act that we had originally was an Act dealing with the appointments in the County Commissioners office, in connection with the voting machines. Before the Act was finally passed, between the time the Act was passed and the time when the election code was adopted, which dealt with voting machines. Mr. Fertig, the head of the Legislative Reference Bureau, suggested that in view of that fact, the Act should be changed and made supplemental instead of amendatory, because the Act that we are amending was repealed by the Election Code.

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, if it is not true that this Act on which we are asked to vote today, provides that all appointments be made by the county commissioners?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is correct, and that is one of the reasons that they made a reduction of the amount to one-third, because outside of the election duties of the county commissioners in Philadelphia, you have very few appointments. The rest of the county commissioners' employees deal with election matters, and so we decided in view of the fact that there are to be seven or eight more employees, that the present number of appointments should be reduced to one-thirdfl

Mr. JACOBS. Mr. President, if this bill that we are now voting on is enacted, it will affect a very small number of appointments?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Act as now changed, is that the minority commissioner receives less appointments than he would have under the first bill, and because on the election days 50% of 150 jobs alloted at election time, a total number of 250, would have given them 125 appointments. On this basis, this would reduce it to about 80 appointments. I would like to state while I am on my feet, that there is a reason back of this, whether the Senator from Pittsburgh agrees with it or not, the people who claimed the county commissioners out and provided for minority commissioners, have more in mind than merely that the minority commissioners should have minority representation, whether the Senator from Pittsburgh agrees or not the principle back of minority representation of the County Commissioners Board, was that they should have at least one-third control, and if the Senator from Pittsburgh only gives them out of the kindness of his heart, it does not change the principle of this Act, particularly when the county commissioners feel, as they do in Philadelphia with the election machinery, and that is one situation in which we always have, to see to it that we have minority representation, even in our commissioners' office they get minority representation in fact, and not merely out of the kindness of their heart.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, if this Assembly has the power to pass a law giving a minority representation on the Board of Commissioners one-third of the appointments, do we not also have the power to give that minority commissioner three-fourths of the appointments?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, yes, I should say we would. As a matter of fact, this Senate has provided by law, that in Philadelphia the real estate assessors, the minority shall have one-half of the appointments of a real estate assessors. Before, the Republicans, when they got into the control of Philadelphia, they eliminated the provision that the minority should have one-half, and said that the appointments of all real estate assessors should be made by the majority commissioners.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, why cut the thing down from one-half to one-third?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Senator from Fayette can use his own judgment on that. I am saying, that a fair proportion is one-third, which will give us a sufficient number of men connected with the voting machines to give us an opportunity to find out whether pins are placed in the voting machines before election day or not.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, this is like "love's labor lost" to me. I had left the Senate Chamber and gone to the barber shop to get myself all cleaned up, because I thought I was coming to the glorious commencement in my senatorial career here, and thought the bill was coming up so that I could have voted for it, and I prepared myself as well as those who might be back, but to come up here, and I find that the bill has been mutilated by cutting it down from one-half to one-third, when it ought to be three-fourths or one hundred percent, that is my only regret. Now, I come up here and all of my labor is lost because I would have to vote for a bill that is mutilated and I think probably it may do violence to my conscience, but I want to apply the same philosophy that our friend, Governor Pinchot applied, rather to take a piece of a loaf than none at all, so I have to vote for the bill the way it is.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the Report?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the povisions of the Constitution.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

YEAS—26

Barthold,	Haluska,	Kunkel,	Rodgers,

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO RIPPER LEGISLATION

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SALUS offered the following resolution which was twice read: and referred to the Committee on Rules.

Whereas, although in pursuance of this principle of enlightment political philosophy, many offices have been ripped out by orders of His Excellency, George the Third, and there still remain a few such offices in various parts of the State carelessly overlooked or otherwise mistakenly left to decision of the voters back home, who can't be expected to exercise the wisdom of selection through direct contact, and only subject to remote control;and

Whereas, with the Legislature in recess during the heated months of Summer (particularly during the trying period of the Dog Days), the Governor might be suddenly seized by an overwhelming desire to do a little more ripping, here and there; and

Whereas, we the members of the Legislature are always solicitous for the wishes and comfort of the aforesaid Governor, and dependent upon his good humor; and

Whereas, what's the use of going to the trouble and expense of holding elections anyhow?; now, therefore be it

Resolved, (the House concurring), that the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, herewith and hereby transfers fully and completely, without equivocation (or mental reservation whatsoever, whatever offices he desires, without using political veneer) where and how his whims or political ambitions may dictate; and be it further

Resolved, that $5,000 or so much, or more, as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for the purchase of a supply of Official executive zippers, to the end that the Governor's future ripping may be done in the modern manner, expeditiously and as painlessly as possible, as zippers leave no scar but upon sober and more mature thought, rippers leave ugly scars and cause irreparable injuries.

ADOPTION OF REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 883.

Mr. SHAPIRO, Mr. President, I move that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 883, entitled:

An Act relating to public assistance; providing for, and regulating assistance to certain classes of persons designated and defined as dependent children, aged persons, blind persons, and other persons requiring relief; providing for the administration of this act by the Department of Public Assistance and county boards of assistance hereby created for this purpose; authorizing the Department of Public Assistance to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States government for assistance to such persons; providing for the liquidation of the State Emergency Relief Board, Boards of Trustees of the Mothers' Assistance Fund; and Boards of Trustees of Pension Fund for the Blind; and repealing laws relating to Mothers' Assistance, pensions for the blind, old age assistance, and the State Emergency Relief Board.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to,

The report was read as follows:

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I would like to know if you have any thought as to what we are going to do with the calendar today. We have a calendar which has not been acted upon, I believe.

The PRESIDENT. Yes, we propose to dispose of the calendar.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, we might take that up immediately, there is only one bill on first reading.

BILL ON FIRST READING

Agreeably to order.

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1316, entitled:

An Act to add sections two three and four to the act approved the nineteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven (P. L. 130) entitled "An act to provide civil rights for all people regardless of race or color" as amended further amplifying and extending the provisions of said act and providing for the payment of penalties to the person or persons aggrieved and providing for the revocation or cancellation of license to do business in this Commonwealth.

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1204 (House Bill No. 1798) on (third reading) entitled:

be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

It was agreed to.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1206, on (third reading) entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and two of the act approved the twenty-second day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty) entitled "An act relating to fires and fire prevention imposing duties and conferring powers upon the State Police authorizing the appointment of the chiefs of fire departments and certain public officers and others as assistants to said State Police and defining their powers and duties providing for the investigation of the cause origin and circumstance of fires and the inspection of all and the removal or change of certain buildings imposing duties on school authorities and on certain corporations associations and fire rating agencies providing for the attendance of witnesses before the said State Police and the enforcement of its orders and prescribing penalties" conferring police and building inspection powers on assistants appointed by the superintendent of State Police.

be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

It was agreed to.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, what was done with the bill on first reading?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, it was read, the bill is on second reading.

The PRESIDENT. If there is no objection, the Senate will proceed to the consideration of the Calendar.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want to speak upon the last bill on the Calendar on second reading. It may be in the course of my talk that it will be necessary for me to talk on a question of personal privilege.

When I first came to the Legislature many years ago ,I introduced in the Assembly the first bill on the question of Equal Rights, and Equal Rights has been a question before the Senate for many many years. I devoted considerable time on this proposition and I am going to speak now of some of the things that were told to me by delegations that called upon me in reference to the bill. This particular bill applies to equal rights to the colored citizens, and we have somewhere in the neighborhood of 200,000 colored people who are citizens of Pennsylvania, and in their welfare, they are entitled to the same consideration as any other group of citizens.

The question of civil rights, or equal rights, is not a new question on the Western Hemisphere. It is a question that has been considered at various times during the last one hundred or one hundred and twenty-five years. My information is that it began in the Island of Haiti, back in 1790. There, among its citizenship, they had a famous colored leader, known as Touissant L'Oventure, known as the Black King of San Domingo, Haiti, in those days, regulated and controlled by a body not unlike our Senate of Pennsylvania, and the demand for equal rights was championed by the gallant, colored man, so he fought and fought, and eventually that legislative body, which was similar to the Senate of the State of Pennsylvania, passed the Equal Rights Bill. It was passed on a certain night—the date I do not recall—but in a few days thereafter the Black King of San Domingo disappeared, and the next thing we knew about him was that he was put in chains and sent to France and died in jail, because of the fact that he had a stalwart thought about his people. And the present-day Senate of Pennsylvania in the handling of this bill is showing as near in comparison to the handling of the one over a hundred years ago, that I am compelled to talk about it now, and I am going to tell you about the history of this bill as I know it in the Legislature, in the Senate of Pennsylvania.

On the 24th day of March, this year, on the floor of this Senate, there was presented a bill on the question on Equal Rights. This bill was prepared by the American Association for the granting of Equal Rights to all American citizens. While the bill was put into committee on the 24th day of March of this year, nothing was ever heard of it. My information is that it was postponed. I was not in the committee and I do not propose to say anything unless I know whereof I speak. This committee is no different than any other committee of the present Senate. It is absolutely controlled by a Democratic majority. On the 17th day of May, a bill with very few small changes, was read on the floor by Senator Stiefel of Philadelphia and referred to the same committee. Prior to the presenting of this bill by Senator Stiefel, and prior to the day that I presented my bill on this question, there called on me a delegation of colored men representing the colored organizations which is backing this particular piece of legislation, and they told me that the following took place:—I was not present, but I took their word for it,—and I think they told me the truth, because I know the men, and they are representative citizens of our community. In that group there were two of the present members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and they told me when they came in, and after I talked to them, when I said to them that "In the present day you colored people have so demeaned yourselves, that you need the assistance of no one to get that which rightfully belongs to you." I believe that this bill should have been presented by one of the six or eight—I do not just know the correct number—colored members in the House of Representatives, and I was told this story, and two of the members of the present House, both elected on the Democratic ticket, stood by while the conversation went on; and they said "We are not allowed by the Democratic caucus to present this bill. We have been told that we must not present this bill because at the present time it would be inadvisable." The hotelman of Pennsylvania, the tap-room keepers, who are members of the Democratic political organizations of Pennsylvania, requested that the bill should not be presented at this session.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel will state his point of order.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I believe the Senator should state matters of fact and not matters of hearsay.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I am arising on a question of personal privilege, and under that question nobody can object to what I say. When the Senator becomes better acquainted and more familiar with the rules and regulations of a legislative body he will not object.

The PRESIDENT: The Senator will proceed.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do not blame some of the men in this body if they feel hurt and grieved when the truth comes out, but truth must prevail. This may be the last speech that I will make on the floor of the Senate this session, but if God gives me strength, I will be back here again.

My colored constituents and friends were sold down the river for the saloon-keepers and the tap-room keepers, and that bill was not presented. I then presented the bill in the Senate and it was sent to the Committee on Law and Order. Before I go on with this I intend to say a few more words. I want to be fair and honest and I want to say to the Democratic members and to the Senators of Pennsylvania, and I believe what this man told me was true and sincere. I refer to the chairman of the Committee on Law and Order, Senator Eroe, who is heartily, honestly and truly interested in this bill and believe that it should be made law. I say Senator Eroe is a friend of the colored man and he is a Democrat, but in his heart he is a real man and he said "I am not interested in this bill because the colored man is interested in it, I am interested in it because it is right and right prevails with me." I pay my compliments and respect to Senator Eroe, the Chairman of this committee and a Democrat. My friends in this delegation consisted of colored men, and I am telling you this story as they told it to me. I believe them, because they are outstanding citizens in my community; they told me that they appeared before the Democratic caucus of the Senate of Pennsylvania and they were told that this bill did not have a chance because of the fact that it was offered by a Republican Senator. It was then that one of the men in this delegation, a member of the public schools in Philadelphia, a high type educated gentleman, said, "Folks, well, if that is what is wrong with our bill, let Senator Stiefel present it." My Democratic friends could not duck under that offer and they presented the bill and it is on the calendar today. Now what happened? This is what happened: Mr. President, they have moved the Mason and Dixon line from the borders between Maryland and Pennsylvania to the northern border of Pennsylvania and along-side and in connection with New York state, a powerful Democratic organization, so powerful that it has moved the Mason and Dixon line, and I tried, with all the vigor in my body, to show that this has been a campaign of deception and cheating so far as the colored man is concerned; but the colored man has not been cheated, because our colored citizens are intelligent people, they cannot be fooled, and when somebody tries to cheat you and you know that this party is lying to you or cheating you, you are only cheating yourselves and that is what has happened so far as this bill is concerned. The colored man has not been cheated, he has not been deceived, and as time goes on he will prove it to my Democratic bretheren that they have made the biggest political blunder in the handling of this bill that they made on any piece of legislation on the floor of this Assembly. Why do I say that this was a deliberate cheat? It was a cheat. This bill was reported from the Committee on Law and Order on the third day of June, 1937. I believe that was the time that the bill was reported out, and it was carried around and not reported back to the Senate until the fifth day of June, two days later, because it was the Democratic impression that we would adjourn on the sixth of June, 1937, and, of course, this bill could not find its way to the House for the purpose of becoming a law. We did not quit on the sixth of June, however, and on the calendar this bill remains on first reading. It was the first bill and the only bill presented on the floor of this Senate that was not read for the first time when reported by the committee. It was the only bill presented before this Senate at any time during this session where nights went by and days went by and it was not read for the first time, and until today it still appears as having been read for the first time and then dropped from the calendar, and we will finally adjourn the session of 1937 in about one hour. This is in complete accord with the Democratic determination that this bill would be strangled. And what is more, we have brought from our southern borders the "Jim Crow" law in Pennsylvania, because this bill was Jim Crowed, it was not given the standing and respectability to be printed with another bill. It has been kept by itself for fear that maybe it might contaminate some other legislation. It has been 'Jim Crowed' and a 'Jim Crow' law, so far as the colored citizens are concerned cannot prevail in Pennsylvania. Gentlemen, I do not know what your answer to these statements will be, but whatever they will be, in time, circumstances will bring out the truth of what has happened, and if it would not be that I do not care to extend my time any longer, I could elaborate on this question for a long time. We are now on the verge of having a constitutional convention, and that constitution which will guarantee equal rights to these colored people. As I stand here and look at George Washington and the constitutional convention pleading for equality of men, and then think that I live in an age when the teachings of the Father of this country are being sold down the river for liquor, tap-rooms and hotels, it is a sad commentary on the history of Pennsylvania. To you, the Saint of the colored people, Father Abraham, we now plead on behalf of our colored bretheren. You stand higher in the hearts of colored people than anything on this earth and unto your Father Abraham—I am preaching. Lift your hand and head up and help place Pennsylvania in the position in which it ought to be. Put the Mason and Dixon line where it ought to be, completely out of reach of the Democratic party.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I wish to ask the Senator how he voted on the McGinnis amendments, or the amendments to the McGinnis bill.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I did not hear the question of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I have asked how the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, voted on the amendments of the McGinnis bill, on the admission of the colored people into the union.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do not recall the bill. What is the McGinnis bill?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, if I am not mistaken the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus voted against it.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President. I do not know what bill the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Stiefel, is talking about.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, the Labor Relations bill.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I believe, if I am not mistaken, that I voted for the bill: if I did not, I do not recollect, but I want to say to the Senator from Philadelphia in answer to his question, that I have been in the Senate of the Legislature of Pennsylvania since 1911, and you have had labor advocates advocating the cause of labor on this floor, and I challenge any man on the floor of this body to compare his record on labor legislation with mine. I am the father of the Child Labor Law. I did not place it on the statute books, but I presented that legislation long before labor took it up, long before women took it up, and have handled every piece of child legislation from the time that I came in here until the last bill was signed by Governor Pinchot, and I have the pen with which it was signed. I am the only man in Philadelphia who voted against the repeal of the Full Crew law when it was repealed by the State of Pennsylvania. If that answer does you any good, you can have it.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, when I came to this Senate as a Senator, I always respected Senator Salus as one of the veterans in the service of the Senate and the service of the people of Pennsylvania, and I believe I am permitted to mention to the members of this Senate some of the conditions which are prevailing in the Second Senatorial District, which has been represented by Senator Salus for many years, and this Senatorial district has a large colored population huddled in terrific slums, slums which cannot stand any description. When they came to the Senate of Pennsylvania for so many years, where was the Senator of Pennsylvania for so many years when they asked for help? Now he is willing to get up and deliver a Fourth of July oration, and we are not interested in orations, we are interested in facts and deeds. It is too late now to become the champion of the colored people, the record speaks for itself. I say to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, the crux of the situation is the way the Senator voted on that amendment to the McGinnis Labor Relations bill, which amendment permitted that they should go into the unions and rectify the wrongs, and when this crucial amendment came to a vote, I am of the impression and I am sure that Senator Salus voted against it, and I say to Senator Salus that as he represented the Second Senatorial District, that he should examine the facts before he addresses us.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I do not want to continue this debate, but the defense that Senator Stiefel makes is the best that he can do, or the best that anyone could do with such a lost cause. I do not recall just now how I voted on the McGinnis bill, but whatever way I voted I will answer when the time comes, and if I made a mistake I will pay the penalty, as he will have to pay the penalty for the mistake he made when he sold down the river the colored constituency that elected him, and that he will not be able to answer.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President,—

The PRESIDENT: The Chair is going to rule this debate out of order.

RECONSIDERATION OF REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 883

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I have an important matter to bring to the attention of this Senate. This Senate adopted a few moments ago the report of the Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 883. I checked the Conference Committee's report before it went to the printers, and I checked it as much as possible since it came back from the printers, and I have checked it again, and I find that the copy of the bill which is attached to the Conference report, the printer's copy, is not the copy which is attached by the Conference Committee Report, and it does not conform in printing to the Conference Committee report. I should like to state, for the purpose of the records, that I think this should be carefully noted on the record that attached to the signatures, or rather accompanying the signed report of the Conference Committee, signed by Senator Thompson, Senator Shapiro and Messrs. Shaw, O'Keefe, Woodside Jr., I think it is on page 11, of the Conference report, there is stricken from the bill accompanying the report of the conference, the following language, beginning on line 10, and ending on line 15. "And provided further that the Local Board of Assistance may upon application authorize grants of additional sums not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) to meet the cost of medical and surgical treatment for conditions which if relieved may restore original vision to those who are blind." Those words were stricken from the bill when the bill went to House for concurrence originally. The Conferees also adopted the action of the House to this extent, and therefore maintained the elimination of that paragraph from the bill and the printed copy of the bill now on the desks, which accompanies the printed report of conferees, page 11, beginning on line 28 and ending on line 4 of page 12, of that printed copy. Through a printer's error those words making up that paragraph, are included. In order that there may be no mistake about the intent of the legislature in that respect, for the purpose of amending that previous copy, I now move that the vote by which the Senate adopted the report of the Conferees be reconsidered.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I now offer the following strike-out amendments to the printer's copy accompanying the printer's report of the Conferees on Senate Bill No. 883.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair understands that this restores the report to its original form.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is correct.

Amend Section 9, page 11, line 28, by striking out after the word "year" the following: And provided further that the Local Board of Assistance upon application authorize grants of additional sums not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) to meet the cost of medical and surgical treatment for conditions which if relieved may restore useful vision to those who are blind."

The PRESIDENT. This being a strike-out amendment the vote will occur on the motion to adopt the report of the Committee of Conference to strike-out, and it carries with it the adoption of the report.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—36.

Barthold,	Gilson,	Kilgallen,	Rankin,

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL NO. 341

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented communications from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House insists upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 341, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and further amend the title and the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, (P. L. 15, 1933-34) entitled as amended "An act to regulate and restrain the sale manufacture, possession, transportation, importation, traffic in, and use of alcohol and alcoholic and malt or brewed beverages; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board and its agents the Department of Public Instruction, other officers of the State government, courts and district attorneys; authorizing the establishment and operation of State stores for the sale of such beverages not for consumption on the premises, and the granting of licenses, subject to local option, to sell such beverages for consumption on and off the premises; for bidding importation or bringing of such beverages into the State except as herein provided; prohibiting certain sales or practices in, connection with and transactions in such beverages by licensees and others; making disposition of the receipts from State stores and of fees; and imposing penalties;" further regulating the manufacture, sale, importation, use and traffic in liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages: conferring additional powers and imposing additional duties on the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; further regulating those licensed under this act; imposing additional filing fees and increasing fees for certain permits, and providing for the disposition thereof; further regulation the establishment of State liquor stores and the employment and use of personnel by the board; regulating and providing the procedure for the granting transfer revocation and suspension of licenses and for compromises in certain cases and the disposition of moneys arising therefrom; providing for the forfeiture of certain property; regulating the jurisdiction of courts and local option procedure; prohibiting certain interlocking business; and providing penalties.

and has appointed Messrs. O'Keefe, Melchiorre and Van Allsburg as a committee of Conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate, (if the Senate shall appoint such committee), to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL NO. 343

He also presented communications from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House insists upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 343, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and further amend the title and the act, approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 252) entitled as amended "An act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt and brewed beverages as herein defined; providing for the licensing of the manufacture, transportation sale and distribution of such beverages; imposing license and permit fees and providing for a collection and distribution thereof restricting ownership and interest in licensed places; permitting municipalities and townships, by vote of the electors, to prevent the licensing therein of places where such beverages may be sold for consumption on the premises, and regulating elections for this purpose; imposing duties upon county treasurers, the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, Quarter Sessions Courts, district attorneys, the Department of Justice, proper authorities of political sub-divisions of the State and election officers; providing penalties; and repealing existing acts;" defining and further defining and regulating licensees, application for licenses and sales by licensees; and providing for the licensing of package retailers, and fixing fees for such licenses, and for amusement permits; regulating the granting, suspension, revocation and transfer of licenses and the procedure therefor; and conferring jurisdiction on certain courts; providing for the granting of licenses by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board instead of the county treasurer, and prescribing the powers and duties of said board providing for compromises where licenses are suspended and for the disposition of application, license permit fees, forfeitures and penalties; and providing penalties and has appointed Messrs. Van Sickle, Bohn and McKinney as a Committee of Conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate, (if the Senate shall appoint such committee), to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

HOUSE ADOPTS REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 771

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has adopted the report of the Committee of Conference on the subject of the differences existing between the two relation to Senate Bill No. 771, entitled:

An Act relating to non-profit cooperative corporations organized to engage in rural electrification; providing for the organization, consolidation and dissolution of such corporation prescribing the qualifications for membership therein; conferring certain rights, powers, duties and immunities upon them and their officers and members prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers; providing for the inclusion of certain existing cooperative or non-profit corporations and associations within the provisions of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State departments, commissions and officers; fixing fees; conferring the right of eminent domain; prohibiting the use of certain terms in the corporate names of other corporations; exempting such corporations from excise taxes; imposing on them a license fee; and exempting such corporations from the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission and from the provisions of the Securities Act.

HOUSE RECOMMITS REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 563

He informed the Senate that the House had recom-mitted report of the Conference Committee to the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 563, entitled:

and has appointed Messrs. Cohen, Simmons and Turner as a Committee of Conference to confer wth a similar committee of the Senate, (if the Senate shall appoint such committee), to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

The PRESIDENT. Let the Chair say the Committee should endeavor to get their reports ready for presentation this evening. It is very important that this is to be done, if this Session is ever to adjourn.

RECESS

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 9:30 p. m.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED TO THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

The Secretary of the Commonwealth, Mr. David Lawrence administered the oath of office to Mr. Harvey Huffman, the President Pro-Tempore.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 955 DISAGREE

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, as a member of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 955, I desire to report that the members were unable to agree.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Jaspan will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, there is no question in my mind that Philadelphia needs pure water and I do believe that the distinguished Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. DiSilvestro, with some of our Democrats, refused to go along in our plea for pure water originally with our great Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, but the question arose in my mind as to his sincerity. What he has in mind I do not know, but the fact remains when a few weeks ago I called to the attention of this honorable body the fact that the amendment was inserted in this bill, which I term a joker, he laughed at me and said, "Oh; I am not interest in this bill," nevertheless, when there was need for pure water, we as Senators and Representatives and the people felt that they needed pure water. What was in the mind of our great Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, I do not know, personally I doubt his sincerity and integrity in the matter, he never intended to go through with it. He has never been honest nor decent in his intention. He has certain ideas and certain thoughts only to conjole the people in the belief that he is honest and decent. We think he is a great masquerader. I am for pure water, every Senator and Representative in Philadelphia, is for pure water and so are our people and I am hoping that in the not distant future we will have the pure water that our friends want. I thank you.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL NO. 1069

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to make a report of the Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 1069, I read in that report that the Committee did not agree on Senate Bill No. 1069, because this bill had passed the House to create a Commission to investigate the mining conditions in the anthracite field, but we are hoping that at the next session we may have a proper report and that this bill may be enacted into a law.

Mr. President, while I am on my feet, being a junior member in the Chamber, and being Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining, I wish to thank the members of my committee, both Democrats and Republicans, and especially the senior members, Mr. Gelder, Mr. Howell, and Mr. Deitrick, along with all the Democratic members who so courteously helped me in my work. I had a hard committee to control, but I must say that they worked with me hand in hand, and they were very decent at all times. At no time in my committee was there any ill-feeling among the members, and I owe them a great deal of gratitude, and I trust that even though they be Republicans, that they and myself will come back here again, as I hope that I will have the pleasure of again working hand in hand with Senators of this type.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, presents a report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 1069, which report is a disagreement. The Chair understands that the difficulty in the committee was the provision in the Mundy resolution with respect to the appointment of a Commission on the part of the Senate and the House to study the code of mining laws and report to the 1939 session, which is the controlling factor in the situation at the moment.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL NO. 69

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented communications from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House insists upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the Senate to Senate Bill No. 69, entitled:

An Act to protect the obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages and owners of property affected thereby and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof by prohibiting for certain periods the foreclosure sale of mortgaged property at less than its fair market value and prescribing the method of fixing the fair market value of said property.

and has appointed Messrs. Achterman, Ostroff and Longaker, as a Committee of Conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate (already appointed), to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

HOUSE APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 1089

He also informed the Senate that the House has appointed the following Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 1089, Messrs. Ominsky, Hering, and Royer.

HOUSE ADOPTS REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL NO. 856

He also informed the Senate that the House has adopted report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 856, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 549), entitled "An act to permit the use of voting machines for recording and computting the vote at all elections, including primaries in any county, city, borough or township of the Commonwealth, at the option of the electors thereof; prescribing regulations with reference to the adoption, requirements, examinations, purchase, installation, preparation, custody and demonstration of use of voting machines; providing rules and regulations for the conduct of elections held with voting machines; prescribing the qualifications, number and duties of election officers in election districts in which voting machines may be used; placing duties upon county commissioners and the Secretary of the Commonwealth; providing for redivision of wards of cities and boroughs into election districts, and the consolidation of election districts; providing for the payment of expenses incident to the purchase and use of voting machines by the counties in which they are used; and providing penalties for violation of the provisions of this act," by adding a new section thereto 11-A, providing that in counties of the first class, all appointments shall be equally divided between majority and minority commissioners.

HOUSE CONCURS IN FINAL ADJOURNMENT RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, June 5, 1937.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Chief Clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives be directed to have the copy of the Journals of the two Houses of this session prepared and placed in the hands of the Bureau of Publications within thirty days after the close of the session, and the Director of the Bureau of Publications is hereby directed to have said Journals printed, bound and delivered to the Senate and House of Representatives within ninety days after the receipt of the copy therefor.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL NO. 343

Mr. McGINNIS, presented report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 343, entitled:

An Act to re-enact and further amend the title and the act, approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 252), entitled as amended "An act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt and brewed beverages, as herein defined; providing for the licensing of the manufacture, transportation, sale and distribution of such beverages; imposing license and permit fees, and providing for a collection and distribution thereof; restricting ownership and interest in licensed places; permitting municipalities and townships, by vote of the electors, to prevent the licensing therein of places where such beverages may be sold for consumption on the premises, and regulating elections for this purpose; imposing duties upon county treasurers, the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, Quarter Sessions Courts, district attorneys, the Department of Justice, proper authorities of political sub-divisions of the State, and election officers; providing penalties; and repealing existing acts;" defining and further defining and regulating licensees, application for licenses and sales by licensees; and providing for the licensing of package retailers, and fixing fees for such licenses, and for amusement permits; regulating the granting, suspension, revocation and transfer of licenses and the procedure therefor; and conferring jurisdiction on certain courts; providing for the granting of licenses by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board instead of the county treasurer, and prescribing the powers and duties of said board; providing for compromises where licenses are suspended and for the disposition of application, license, permit fees, forfeitures and penalties; and providing penalties.

BILLS SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 682, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the expenses of the joint legislative commission created by Senate Concurrent Resolution Serial Number one hundred and six, approved March sixteenth, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven.

Senate Bill No. 856, entitled:

An Act providing that all appointments made by the county commissioners in counties of the first class shall be equally divided between the majority and minority commissioners, respectfully submit the following bill as our report.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

HOUSE MESSAGE

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives which was twice read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the House of Representatives, June 5, 1937.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That this regular session of the General Assembly adjourn sine die June 5th, 1937, at 11:45 o'clock p. m.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SECRETARY. The Committee on Rules will meet immediately in the offices of he President Pro Tempore.

APPOINTMENT OF SENATE MEMBERS ON LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION TO STUDY BITUMINOUS COAL MINING, PURSUANT TO SENATE BILL NO. 1238

The PRESIDENT. The President Pro Tempore announces the appointment of the following Senators to serve on the Legislative Commission to study bituminous coal mining, pursuant to Senate Bill No. 1238: The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, and the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 1089 DISAGREE

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, on behalf of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 1089, consisting of Senators McCreesh, Scarlett and myself, I am sorry to report that they disagreed.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I want to make a statement in connection with Senate Bill No. 1089. When I first introduced this bill, it had the backing of our friend, Mayor Wilson, but since then he has had a change of mind on the water bill. As I explained earlier in the evening, when I first introduced this bill. I though it would pass through the Senate and the House without any trouble, But Mayor Wilson saw fit to kill it in the House, and used whatever influence he could possibly have had at his command to defeat it, and that accounts for its defeat.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I would like to inquire whether or not Mayor Wilson is a member of the Senate.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, he is not a member of the Senate, but he has friends in both the Senate and the House, on both sides, and particularly among the Republicans, and he has done everything he possibly could to defeat this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Is it safe to assume that the Mayor of Philadelphia, has been here, instead of the Democratic State Chairman?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, the State Chairman is not interested in this particularly, however, the Mayor of Philadelphia was interested because it effects Philadelphia.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from Committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. LAW, from the Committee on Rules reported as committed, the following resolution:

In the House of Representatives, June 5, 1937.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That this regular session of the General Assembly adjourn sine die June 5th, 1937, at 11:45 o'clock p. m.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I move that the resolution just reported from the Committee on Rules be adopted.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL NO. 69

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 69, entitled: "An Act To protect the obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages, and owners of property affected thereby, and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof, by prohibiting for certain periods the foreclosure sale of mortgaged property at less than its fair market value, and prescribing the method of fixing the fair market value of said property," respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

W. J. EROE, JR.
P. J HENNEY,
JOHN G. HOMSHER,
Committee on the Part of the Senate

LEO A. ACHTERMAN,
ISIDOR OSTROFF,
JOHN H. LONGAKER,
Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.

An Act to protect the obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages and owners of property affected thereby and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof by prohibiting for certain periods the foreclosure sale of mortgaged property at less than its fair market value and prescribing the method of fixing the fair market value of said property

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That hereafter before any execution shall issue against the mortgaged premises on the foreclosure of any mortgage or on a judgment entered on any obligation secured by mortgage the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall either (1) file a statement in the court having jurisdiction over such execution certifying under oath that he or they release and discharge the obligors and guarantors and any other parties liable directly or indircetly on the mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby from all personal liability on the mortgage debt interest costs taxes and municipal claims or (2) petition the court having jurisdiction to issue such execution to fix the fair market value of the property to be sold Said petition shall be signed and sworn to by the plaintiff or plaintiffs

Section 2 The petition shall set forth

(a) The location by address or description of the mortgaged real estate to be sold the name or names of the mortgagors and real estate to be sold the name or names of the mortgagors and all other persons known to petitioner to be or who may be directly or indirectly liable to petitioner or any other person for the payment of said mortgage debt

(b) a statement of the fair market value of said property and

(c) shall name as respondents and state the addresses of the obligors and guarantors and any other persons directly or indirectly liable to petitioner for the payment of said mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby

Section 3 The court shall thereupon fix a date for hearing on said petition not less than fifteen days after the filing thereof and said petition shall be served upon each and all of the persons named therein as respondents at least ten days prior to the date fixed for hearing At any time prior to the hearing any respondent or other person in interest may appear and answer setting up in his answer his interest in the proceedings and answering the averments of the petition

Section 4 Said petition may be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff of any other county specially deputized for that purpose upon the respondents named therein

(a) By handing an exact copy thereof to each of them personally or

(b) By leaving an exact copy thereof at the residence of each of them with an adult member of his family or

(c) If service cannot be had in either of the above methods and the return of the sheriff is that the respondent or respondents or any of them cannot be found in this county or State said respondent or respondents may be served by publishing in the legal newspaper of the county and one newspaper of general circulation in the county at least fifteen days prior to the day fixed for the hearing of such petition a notice to the said respondent or respondents of the filing of said petition and at least fifteen days prior to the day thereon Provided however That if there be no legal newspaper in the county then in one newspaper of general circulation in said county

Any obligor guarantor mortgagor and any other person liable directly or indirectly for the payment of the mortgage debt and any owner or owners of the property affected thereby who is not joined as a party defendant nor served with a petition as provided in this section shall be deemed to be discharged from all personal liability to the petitioner on the mortgage debt interest and costs but any such failure to serve the petition shall not be deemed to affect or impair the validity of any execution sale or the title secured thereby

Section 5 Return of the service of any petition shall set forth particularly the time place and manner of service and shall be filed before the time fixed for hearing No hearing shall be had until the court shall be satisfied that service has been made upon all the respondents in any of the methods herein provided

Section 6 At such hearings any party in interest may introduce into evidence testimony of the fair market value of the premises to be sold

If no answer be filed within the time provided for in this Act or if an answer be filed which does not controvert the allegation of the fair market value of the property as averred in the Petition the plaintiff or plaintiffs may file in the Court a statement under oath releasing the obligors and guarantors and any other persons liable directly or indirectly for the mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby from personal liability to the extent of the fair market value as averred in the petition Whereupon the Court shall order the sale to be proceeded with forthwith

If no answer be filed within the time herein provided for or if an answer be filed contraverting the averment in the Petition as to the fair market value of the property and no testimony be produced at the hearing supporting such denial of the fair market value and no such declaration of release is filed by the plaintiff or plaintiffs prior to the hearing the Court shall determine and fix as the fair value of the property and amount thereof alleged in the petition to be the fair market value

If answer be filed alleging as the fair market value an amount in excess of the fair market value of the property as averred in the petition the plaintiff or plaintiffs may agree to accept as the fair market value of the property the value set up in the answer and in such case may file under oath a declaration releasing the obligors and guarantors and any other persons liable directly or indirectly for the mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby from personal liability to the extent of the fair market value as averred in the answer Whereupon the Court shall order the sale to be proceeded with forthwith If an answer shall be filed and testimony produced setting forth that the fair market value of the property is more than the value stated in the petition the court shall determine and fix the fair market value of the premises which shall in no event exceed the amount of the mortgage debt interest costs taxes and municipal claims and for such purpose may appoint no more than three appraisers to assist the court in determining said fair value

After the hearing and the determination by the court of the fair market value of the property to be sold the execution may issue but said property shall not be sold for less than the fair market value so determined and fixed

Section 7 If said property cannot be sold at a price equal or greater than the fair market value so fixed a report thereof shall be made by the plaintiff or plaintiffs to the court whereupon the court shall postpone the sale of the premises for a period not exceeding six months from the date of such report No notice or advertisement shall be required for such postponed sale

Section 8 If at such postponed sale a price equal to or greater than the fair market value of the property shall not be bid a report thereof shall be made to the court whereupon the court shall again postpone the sale of the premises for an additional period not exceeding six months No notice or advertisement shall be required for such postponed sale

Section 9 If at such second postponed sale a price equal to or greater than the fair market value of the property shall not be bid a report thereof shall be made to the court whereupon the court may order said sale confirmed to the highest bidder or may postpone the sale in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the previous postponements for such further periods not exceeding an aggregate of one year as the court shall deem equitable and just

Section 10 Nothing in this act shall be construed to affect the right of any mortgagor and any person liable directly or indirectly for the payment of the mortgage debt to the benefit of any amount realized on any execution sale in excess of the fair market value fixed or agreed to in accordance with the provisions of this act

Section 11 The provisions of this act shall not apply to the foreclosure of any mortgage held by any Federal land bank or the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation if at the time of said foreclosure the United States of America owns a majority of the capital stock of such bank or corporation

Section 12 The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any section provision or clause thereof shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision so holding shall not be construed to affect or impair any other section provision or clause of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been enacted had such unconstitutional section provision or clause not been included therein

Section 13 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, as one of the minority members of the conference committee on this bill, I desire to explain certain features thereof, and also to explain my reasons for signing this Conference Report, in spite of the fact that some of the features of the bill are not to my liking. In the first place, I objected in the Conference Committee, and still feel that the provisions at the top of page 25, the first three lines, authorizing the Governor to discharge any person appointed under the provision of the Civil Service features of this act makes the Civil Service Features, a mere mockery. I censored, as one of the members of this Conference Committee, to have that eliminated. I also objected to the amendments made in the House on page 19, whereby there was deleted from the bill, a provision with reference to the appointment by the President, of the Colleges and Universities receiving state-aid, of the persons who would conduct the Civil Service Examinations, as inserted in lieu thereof a provision which makes political control of this Civil Service Feature. We were to set forth in having inserted in the bill, on pages 9 and 10, a provision requiring all purchases by the liquor control board to be made subject to the approval of the Auditor General or his designated deputy. The bill contains many good features and tightens the control of liquor and the distribution of liquor in Pennsylvania. I therefore signed the bill, in spite of the objectionable features which I have enumerated, and intend to vote for the bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the Report?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—36

Barthold,	Gilson,	Kilgallen,	Rankin,
Cavalcante,	Haluska	Kunkel,	Rodgers,

RESOLUTION No. 95

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 95, Printer's No. 1193.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

IN RE CONTESTED ELECTION OF SAMUEL P. BOYER
AS STATE REPRESENTATIVE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS
OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN THE CASE OF
JOHN MALEY vs SAMUEL P BOYER
FROM THE COUNTY OF CAMBRIA TO THE HON ROY E FURMAN SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Your Committee to whom was referred the Contested Case of MALEY vs BOYER from the County of Cambria respectively reports

That a certified copy of the record of the Court Below in this proceeding was carefully reviewed and after a Public Hearing in which arguments and briefs were submitted by learned counsel for both parties in this Contest this Committee reports the following findings of facts and conclusions of law

That there were many general allegations and averments as to fraud in the Petition filed in this Contest in the Court Below but no specific averments or proof with one exception were alleged or submitted and no effort was made by the Contestant John Malley in this proceeding to bring into Court disputed ballot boxes about which he complains The following facts are of extreme import to your Committee

Counsel for Samuel P Boyer Incumbent and John Malley Contestant agreed in the proceedings in the Court Below that Eighty-nine (89) specific ballots had been altered and the Court accordingly changed these ballots to conform to the intent of the voters This was disclosed by the testimony of Leon Webster Melcher the hand-writing expert in the proceedings in the Court Below yet curious enough counsel for the Contestant in this Contest before your Committee now assumes a different position and states that over two hundred (200) ballots were altered With this statement and conclusion of counsel for the Contestant we cannot agree Such averments should have been definitely stated in the proceeding in the Court Below and your Committee concludes that the allegations of counsel at this late date are entirely without foundation or merit As a result of the proceeding in the Court Below the court did on January 22, 1937 make the following Order

"By the Court
McCann P J

And now January 22 1937 after considering the testimony the Court is of the opinion that there was prima facie evidence of fraud shown in the counting of ninety-three votes at the election this however not being enough to change the result of the election the contest is dismissed at the costs of the Commonwealth as provided for by the Act of Assembly"

McKENDRICK J
GREER J
McCANN P J CONCURS"

Your Committee believes that the action of the Court Below was proper and that the principle involved in this proceeding was decided by the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth in the case of Sheriff Gollmar's Election Contest 316 Pa 560 in which case the Supreme Court held

"We regard the averments deficient in particularity within the opinion of Justice Agnew Jr as stated in the Election Cases 65 Pa 20 where the general rule of certainty to a common intent was applied

"While pleading an election contest should not be governed by such strictness as to protect fraud yet neither should the acts of sworn officers chosen by the people be attacked without adequate and well-defined cause

"Pleading before us would seem only an effort to place the situation in such a light as to justify a voyage of exploration into a large number of ballot boxes in the hope of ultimate discovery Such is not the province of a contest It may be accomplished under the Act of April 23 1937 P L 260 (25 P S Section 2221-2226) but when a contest is once instituted it must rest on something more than general allegations inferences or innuendos"

The foregoing opinion seems to clearly govern this proceeding and this Committee is hesitant to over-rule the opinion of the able jurists in the Court Below

Your Committee therefore concludes that according to the returns of the election held on November 3 1936 for one of the Offices of Representative for the County of Cambria Samuel P Boyer received eight thousand one hundred eighty-six (8,186) votes and John Malley received as appears by the election held on November 3 1936 eight thousand one hundred eleven (8,111) votes

Samuel P Boyer having received the majority of seventy-five (75) votes is entitled to the Certificate of Election

In accordance with these findings the Committee submits the following resolutions and recommends their passage

Resolved that John Malley was not elected a Member to the House of Representatives and is not entitled to a seat therein

Resolved that Samuel P Boyer was duly elected a Representative to the House of Representatives from Cambria County and is entitled to retain the seat which he now holds

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. BOYER. Under the provisions of Rule 71 I wish to be excused from voting.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will be excused from voting under his constitutional rights.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1640.

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1640, Printer's No. 1231.

The report was read by the Clerk as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 1640, entitled: "A Supplement to the act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws 736), entitled, as amended 'An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment; establishing a system and schedule of compensation; providing a procedure for the determination of liability and comepnsation thereunder; and prescribing penalties,' as amended; and re-enacted; providing for the inclusion of occupational diseases within the scope thereof; and providing definitions, provisions and procedure related to such diseases: and making an appropriation," respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

LEO C. MUNDY,
EDWARD J. THOMPSON,
FREDERICK T. GELDER,
(Committee on the part of the Senate)

EUGENE A. CAPUTO,
ARTHUR R. SCHOR,
ARTHUR J. WALL,
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives)

A Supplement to the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred thirty-six) entitled as amended "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing a system and schedule of compensation providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder and prescribing penalties" as amended and re-enacted providing for the inclusion of occupational diseases within the scope thereof and providing definitions provisions and procedure related to such dieases and making an appropriation

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Represenatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That

Section 6 (a) If it shall be shown that the employe at or immediately before the date of disability was employed in any process or employment set forth in section two it shall be presumed that the occupational disease is due to the nature of that employment This presumption however shall not be conclusive

(b) An employer shall be liable for the payments prescribed by this act for the occupational diseases described in Section 2 hereof when disability of an employe resulting in loss of earnings shall be due to an employment in a hazardous occupation in which he was employed and such disability results within two years after the last exposure in such employment or in case of death resulting from such exposure if such death occurs within five years following disability from such disease

Section 7 (a) In the case of such occupational diseases as the Workmen's Compensation Board shall determine develops to the point of disablement only after an exposure of five or more years the compensation for disability or death due to such diseases shall for a period of ten years immediately succeeding the effective date of this act be payable jointly by the Commonwealth and the employer as follows If disability occurs or if no compensable period of disability occurs if death occurs during the first year in which this act becomes effective the employer shall be liable for and pay one-tenth of the compensation for such disability or death and the remainder of such compensation shall be paid by the Commonwealth out of moneys to the credit of the Second Injury Reserve Account in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund Thereafter for each successive year of such ten-year period in which disability occurs or if no compensable period of disability occurs if death occurs the employer shall be liable for and shall pay one-tenth more of such compensation and the remainder of such compensation shall be paid by the Commonwealth out of moneys to the credit of the Second Injury Reserve Account in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund After the expiration of such ten-year period the employer shall pay the compensation for disability or death occurring thereafter in full

(b) The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) is hereby appropriated out of the General Fund to the State Workmen's Insurance Board for payment into the State Workmen's Insurance Fund to the credit of the Second Injury Reserve Account and is hereby appropriated for the carrying out of the purposes of paragraph (a) of this section The aforesaid sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) shall as soon as practical be repaid into the General Fund of the State Treasury out of moneys to the credit of the Second Injury Reserve Account in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund and such moneys are hereby appropriated to the State Workmen's Insurance Board for this purpose

Section 8 In any action brought after the effective date of this act in any court by an employe against his employer who has elected not to be bound by the provisions of Article III of the Workmen's Compensation Act and such action is based upon a claim by the employee for damages for personal injury resulting from an occupational disease proof on the part of the employe that he had been subjected to a physical examination by such employer and that he had been discharged by such employer within one year after such examination or proof of discharge by such employer and the further fact that the employe was unable to secure other employment within six months of the date of such discharge by reason of the presence of an occupational disease in any stage shall be prima facie evidence of negligence on the part of such employer In any such action it shall not be a defense on the part of any employer

(a) That the injury was caused in whole or in part by the negligence of a fellow employe or

(b) That the employe had assumed the risk of the employment or

(c) That the injury was caused in any degree by the negligence of such employe or

(d) That the employe was exposed to the hazard of such disease in any other employment more than two years prior to the date of such action

The Statute of Limitations in any such action for personal injury resulting from an occupational disease shall commence to run from the date of last exposure to the hazards of such disease in the employment of the defendant

Section 9 The employer in whose employment the employe was last exposed in a hazardous occupation and the insurance carrier if any who was on the risk at the time of the last exposure in such employment shall be liable for any payments required by this act the notice of injury and claim shall be made to such employer

Section 10 In all cases involving claims for silicosis anthraco-silicosis except in those cases wherein there are no controverted medical issues between the parties the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee shall appoint a Medical Advisory Board composed of one or more duly qualified impartial physicians or surgeons or experts in accordance with Section 420 of the Workmen's Compensation Act to be selected from a panel to be submitted by the Secretary of the Department of Labor and Industry which panel shall be made up of names selected from lists submitted by the Deans of all legally recognized Medical Schools in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania The Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee shall order the claimant to subject himself to such clinical pathological and Roentgen examinations as in the opinion of the Medical Advisory Board may be necessary to determine whether or not the claimant has contracted or is suffering from the disease for which claim has been filed After examination the Medical Advisory Board shall file with the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee its written report setting forth its opinion with respect to the following medical questions

(a) Whether or not the claimant has contracted or is suffering from silicosis or anthraco-silicosis and in death cases whether or not death was caused by either of them

(b) If the claimant has contracted or is suffering from silicosis or anthraco-silicosis its opinion as to the extent of injury suffered by the claimant

The Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee shall mail a copy of such report and findings to the claimant and to the employer or his their or its insurers within twenty (20) days from the date of the filing thereof

The Workmen's Compensation Board of Referee shall order an autopsy to be made upon the decedent for the purpose of examination and tests to determine the cause of death in the following cases

(1) When the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee upon the advice of the Medical Advisory Board deems such an autopsy to be necessary to determine the cause of death

(2) Upon application of the employer when the Medical Advisory Board recommends an autopsy to determine the cause of death

The findings resulting from such examinations and tests shall be filed with the State Department of Health and certified copies thereof shall be filed with the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee and shall become public records in the case

The reports and findings of the physicians surgeons or experts so appointed by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee shall be considered by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee as evidence of findings therein contained and shall be considered together with any other medical evidence offered on behalf of the claimant or employer At the time of any hearing of said cause the physicians surgeons or experts so appointed by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee shall appear and be subject to examination and cross-examination by the parties to said cause if written request therefor shall be filed by either of said parties with the Referee or Board within ten (10) days after written notice of the filing of said report and findings shall be mailed to the respective parties in interest

All the proceedings for compensation shall be suspended upon the refusal of a claimant or claimants to submit to such clinical pathological and Roentgen examinations as may be ordered by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee In death cases in the event that a claimant or claimants shall refuse to permit an autopsy to be made upon the body of the decedent for a period of six months after death when ordered by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee then and in that event no compensation shall be payable and claim therefor shall be disallowed by the Workmen's Compensation Board or Referee

Section 11 The Workmen's Compensation Board or any Workmen's Compensation Referee shall have power to issue an order authorizing the entry of any physician surgeon or expert upon the premises of the defendent employer in order to ascertain the facts in any case arising under this act

Section 12 It is hereby determined to be the legislative intent that if this act cannot take effect in its entirety because of the decision of any court holding unconstitutional any part hereof the remaining provisions shall be given full force and effect as if the part held unconstitutional had not been included herein

Section 13 This act shall become effective on the first day of January one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. CAPUTO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in presenting this report I wish to call the attention of the members of the House to the fact that the bill does not represent the thought of the sponsor of the bill in its entirety. We feel, however, that since the session of the Legislature is about to close, this bill should be passed in order that we in Pennsylvania may have done something for the workers of Pennsylvania along this line. I wish to call to the attention of the members of the House, particularly Section 5 b of this bill, as amended by the Senate. That section would have entirely deprived the workers in coal mines particularly, and in those industries where silicosis and other diseases are probable, from receiving compensation. As amended by the Conference Committee this bill permits that to a certain extent, and would restore compensation to those people affected by those diseases, and for this reason members of the House, and because this session is drawing to a close, I feel, and my colleagues feel that in a small way we have contributed to the benefit of those workers in this bill. I ask the support of the House for this bill.

Mr. SCHOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise to second the request of the gentleman from Beaver, that the House adopt the Conference Report. I wish to speak with reference to Section 5 in order that we may perhaps in some measure know about the legislative intent relative to that section. Paragraph (b) of that section as amended by the Senate read: "Compensation shall be payable as otherwise provided in this act for total disability or death caused primarily (as definitely distinguished from a contributory or accelerating cause) by silicosis anthraco-silicosis or asbestosis when accompanied by active pulmonary tuberculosis or streptococcic infection."

Those terms sound extremely technical, but that merely means that those diseases would not be compensible unless we wrote in the bill that those diseases were the exclusive cause of death or disability. We have amended it so that if those diseases shall be the primary cause, that the disease shall be compensible.

Again I wish to reiterate the remarks made by the gentleman from Beaver. This act is drawn as the initial step in occupational disease legislation. Now, it is not to be regarded as a final act. Unfortunately the Compensation Act adopted in 1915, with some hit or miss amendments occasionally entering into the act, it remained for this legislature, after a period of twenty-two years, before a liberal act was adopted. I sincerely hope to have the cooperation of the members in adopting a more liberal act than that which we have before us today. However, I do feel that we are at least driving in the proper direction in the matter of occupational disease compensation laws in Pennsylvania, which has remained a social unjustice for a great length of time.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, we on this side of the House appreciate the statements of the enthusiastic gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Caputo, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Schor. We have felt, however, that there is some experiment in this, and we cannot quite follow the enthusiasm of the gentleman from Philadelphia, who in the closing hours of the session of 1937 proposes already an extension of an act which has not been tried out. I don't think that there is any man who does not realize that there is a great problem to be met in the question of occupational disease and compensation for it. I do not see how any man of any heart or conscience could oppose the general idea of compensation to those who are incapacitated by occupational diseases The great problem is how far can industry carry on so that injury to one or two or a dozen does not destroy the jobs of many more.

I think it is said that every great bridge that has been built in the world has cost a number of lives, every great tunnel that has been built has cost a number of lives. We still go on building bridges and building tunnels. The advances in aviation were brought about by the loss of life of those who were willing to sacrafice their lives for the benefit of industry or science, and so in this question of occupational disease we must approach it slowly. We hope that this act will not prove disastrous to industry but that it will prove beneficial to labor. We hope it will work out, but on the other hand let us not be one-sided until we see how far we can go without injury to industry. We will be delighted to vote in favor of this report of the Committee of Conference.

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I certainly do not wish to take much time in expressing myself before this House in what I hope are the closing moments, but I cannot refrain from expressing, Mr. Speaker, to you and to the members of this House my appreciation, and I believe I am expressing the appreciation of the medical profession of the state of Pennsylvania and the appreciation of the vast number of workers who are employed in industry in this great state of ours.

The old compensation law, as you know, has been antiquated for a long time. We have had a great deal of trouble in securing for these poor unfortunate men and women who were injured in industry, proper adjustment of their cases, and securing for them proper compensation.

Now, this law is not perhaps perfect; it perhaps does not embody what all of us would like to have in it, but certainly it is a decided improvement on the old law, and we feel that it is a wonderful innovation to the workers employed in this State. As to the innovation of occupational insurance, Mr. Speaker, we have felt for a long time and have insisted we should have such insurance, but it has been a very difficult matter to work it out, and as has been indicated here today, it certainly is not perhaps a perfect law, but we do feel that it is a step in the right direction. We do feel that this House should have the grateful thanks of the vast number of those employed in industry for putting on the statute books such a law as is embodied in this new compensation act.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the report of the Committee of Conference was adopted.

Ordered, that the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 2472, Senate Bill No. 1217, Printer's No. 678, was defeated on final passage on June 3, 1937, be reconsidered.

Mr. JAMES A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. O'Brien, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. JAMES A. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. O'Brien.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. O'BRIEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know from the gentleman from Philadelphia what this bill does.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, reading the title of this bill it is "to enable the Court of Quarter Sessions to restore to the possession and ownership of former owners thereof certain intoxicating liquors seized for violation of law notwithstanding the conviction of the owner of said liquor of an offense in respect thereof."

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know from the gentleman, would that mean that where liquor has been confiscated by the State for a violation of the liquor laws, that that liquor will be returned to the person convicted. In other words where there has been bootlegging that the liquor be returned to the bootlegger?

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, being an attorney could answer that question better himself. I would assume that it would not apply to liquor really confiscated in so far as the State Liquor Board is concerned.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the only interpretation I could give to it is the one implied by my question. I cannot understand how this House would reconsider passing such a law; that is why I made the inquiry.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McDevitt and Mr. Schrock and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

QUESTION OF INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of inqury.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Will the Chair advise the names of the Republican members of the Conference Committee on the part of the House?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Trout.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I notice that he has not signed the report. In view of the fact that neither the Republican Senator who was a member of the Conference Committee on the part of the Senate, nor Mr. Trout, the member of the Conference on the part of the House has signed the report, I would ask the Republican members of the House to vote "no" on its adoption.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Section 8 Interference with Enforcement No person shall hinder or delay any authorized representative of the Department of Labor and Industry in the performance of his duties nor shall any person refuse to admit to or lock out from any place of employment any such authorized representative or refuse to give such authorized representative information required for the proper enforcement of this act

Section 9 Penalties Whoever violates any provision of this act shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) or more than two hundred dollars ($200) and upon non-payment thereof by imprisonment for not more than sixty days and whenever any person shall have been notified by the department or its authorized representatives or by the service of a summons in a prosecution that he is violating such provision he shall upon conviction as aforesaid be punished by like penalties in addition for each and every day that such violation shall have continued after such notification Provided further That the employment of any person in violation of such provisions with respect to each person so employed shall constitute a separate and distinct offense

Section 10 Intimidating Witnesses Whoever shall by force intimidation threat or procuring dismissal from employment or by any other manner whatsoever induce or attempt to induce an employe to refrain from giving testimony in any investigation or proceeding relating to or arising under this act or whoever discharges or penalizes any employe for so testifying shall upon conviction in a summary proceeding be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) or more than two hundred dollars ($200)

Section 11 Constitutionality of Act Except as to subsection (b) of Section two the provisions of this act shall be severable and if any provision thereof shall be held unconstitutional the decision so holding shall not be construed to affect or impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein Provided however That the provisions of sub-section (b) of section two are hereby declared not to be severable from the other provisions of this act and in the event the provisions of such subsection are held to be unconstitutional it is hereby declared that the legislative intent is that the entire provisions of this act shall not be in force or effect

Section 12 This act shall become effective on December first one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I think the following editorial can express more briefly and perhaps more succintly the opinion which I hold on this measure. This is one of the most far reaching measures that has come before this House that is committing the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to a course of action which may have very grave consequences. I realize it has been the aim of labor to put in a measure of this kind. I think that none of us has a quarrel with the limitation of working hours in any of our industries. I think with that aim we are all in accord, but the great difficulty with this sort of legislation is to restrict it so as to meet all the complications of business and of industry. The editorial that I am about to read says this: "The Legislature is proposing to enact one of the most sweeping and important measures in Pennsylvania's history without even holding a hearing on it.

"In the haste of an eleventh hour rush toward adjournment, it has before it a 44-hour a week bill which vitally affects every worker and employer in the State; which will represent the greatest industrial experiment ever attempted by any individual state, and which may have calamitous effects unless it is clarified and some of its utterly unworkable and foolish provisions are corrected.

"Because President Roosevelt, Congress and students of the question recognize that the limitation of work hours is a national problem, the President has just send a message to Congress on that subject and the legislative branch has already started work on it. A lengthy bill, which makes provision for many of the contingencies and difficulties that may arise, has been drawn, but is expected to be materially modified and improved after full hearings.

"Without waiting to see what Congress does, however, Pennsylvania's Legislature is preparing to pass a measure that is loosely and hastily prepared, which tries to set up standard rules and practices for all industry of a great state, and on which a hearing to develop questions and criticism is not even planned.

"We predict that if the Earle Administration goes through with this bill now in the Legislature it will prove a tragic and costly blunder; that the law will be unworkable: that it will handicap and needlessly penalize many employers, particularly small ones, and that it will develop more complications and difficulties than attended even the ill-fated NRA. For, like NRA, it attempts to cover all industry at one sudden swoop.

"It is a well-known fact that there is a real shortage of some types of skilled labor. This is due to various causes—one of which is that certain unions have restricted apprenticeships for a number of years, during which time their members have been growing older, retiring or passing on.

"Yet, under this bill as drawn, no exemption is made for overtime work, even though it be at overtime rates of pay. If the employer could not find enough skilled workers and was willing to pay overtime rates in order to get the job done, it would be just too bad for him. For the bill makes no such exemption.

"It is true that the act gives to the Department of Labor and Industry wide powers to make exceptions upon the submission of petitions accompanied by convincing evidence. But it would be physically impossible for any board to study such evidence and to cover the entire field of Pennsylvania industry before next November 1.

"The bill is probably subject to the same legal criticisms as was NRA in that it delegates what amounts to legislative authority to the Department of Labor. The Department could apply or fail to apply its provisions almost at will; it would be the most powerful board in the entire State. It would have almost life-and-death authority over many businesses.

"This paper, sympathizing with the objects of President Roosevelt's wage-and-hour legislation, nevertheless thinks the proposed Pennsylvania statute would bring only grief. The bill is so poorly drawn as to compare unfavorably with the legislation proposed in Congress. It tries to accomplish too much in too short a period of time. It is dangerous to embark on the greatest experiment ever attempted by the State in such slip-shod, pell-mell fashion, without even giving the affected parties an opportunity to be heard. It is unbusiness-like to impose on Pennsylvania industry restrictions such as exist in no other state. And it is foolhardy to try to rush ahead of the entire country at a time when this question is being tackled logically and workably on a national scale."

That editorial is from the Pittsburgh Press, a paper that is supporting the Administration. Now, this editorial states that the time limit is November 1. I realize that the bill before us has been amended to December 1, and I also realize that since the date of this resolution, last Saturday, May 29, there have been other amendments inserted by the gentleman from Luzerne, which I believe are an improvement in the bill.

Again I say this, that on every question that has come to the gentleman from Luzerne as to what will happen to certain industries, he has said to me that the Department of Labor and Industry has the power through the Industrial Board to make rules and regulations. For instance, a man wrote me from Philadelphia that he was in the glue business and that that industry required continuous operation, that to stop would require two days to clean up. How would they stop on Saturday noon and start again on Monday? They would have to stagger their work. They have no quarrel with the 44-hour week but how are they going to run five and one half days a week. You say that the the Department will be inclined to grant to industry and many businesses the necessary exemption in order that they may operate. I want to say to you, however, that this is placing in the hands of one man far too much power. As this editorial has very ably stated, it gives to the Secretary of Labor and Industry a life and death power over the business of Pennsylvania, and I am very frank to say to you what I said to the Secretary of Labor and Industry the other evening in a joking way, but it nevertheless is absolutely true, "give me the Department of Labor and Industry under this bill and I will elect any man Governor of Pennsylvania." You take the business in Pennsylvania, a multiplicity of businesses, and you place them in a position where the particular views of a small number of men, perhaps unfamiliar with the needs and requirements of business, will have control or entire charge of their business, or by indirect methods compel them to do almost anything they desire them to do.

I heard the Governor say the other night at the dinner that Mr. Gallagher gave to the members of the House, that he was inclined to feel that the small business man is the backbone of our democracy. With those words I am in hearty accord. For a great many years we have been preaching the fact that it is the small business man that is the backbone of Pennsylvania. We are accustomed to thinking of the great steel industries, the Baldwin Locomotive Works or the great railroads of Pennsylvania, but I want to say to you that if you study the car loading of the railroads you will find that the great bulk of freight carried in Pennsylvania, and therefore the great bulk of industry in Pennsylvania, cames from thousands of small industries in the State, and it is their peculiar problems that I have in mind. They are often three, four, or five men industries, and they have considerable difficulty in working out their problems. Therefore this legislature should not delegate power upon such a broad scale as to leave them at the mercy of any one man, no matter who he may be. No man can be trusted with that power, even though he be the present Secretary and even though he be the finest and most honest man in the world, there is no reason why he should be trusted with a life and death power over the industry of Pennsylvania.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as far as labor is concerned, labor is not only for the 44-hour a week bill which is before the House at the present time, but labor is for a thirty hour a week bill. Labor is for a thirty hour week bill because labor knows that is the only way that the slack can be taken up in the country, by putting men that are idle back to work. With reference to this 44-hour a week bill I might say that one of the last amendments that was placed in the bill takes care of any Federal regulations that may be placed on the statute books of the United States, providing that with respect to any industry whose schedule of hours is established by Federal regulation, the schedules to be fixed by the Department of Labor and Industry with the approval of the Industrial Board, shall conform to the schedule established by any such Federal regulatory body. That is going to take care of the question submitted by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, that the State of Pennsylvania is attempting to place on the statute books a 44-hour a week before the Federal Government has attempted to do anything of the kind.

You might have read in the papers just recently where the Federal Government intends to place before Congress a bill which will make possible a 30-hour a week as a minimum and a maximum of 40 hours. I might say that it is not only labor that is seeking to shorten the hours. In industry many employers realize that the only way the slack can be taken up, to remedy the unemployment situation, is by the reduction of hours. Last Friday an article appeared in the papers by Robert Johnson, President of Johnson and Johnson manufacturers of surgical equipment, who recommended that Congress write a minimum wage requirement of $16.00 a week and a maximum week of 40 hours into the President's Wage-Hour Bill. He called upon all American business to support the legislation as a matter of enlightened self interest, declaring it will be cheaper in the long run than the present relief system. Johnson of a firm which employs upwards of five thousand people explained that the standards he imposed were temporary and should be improved as rapidly as possible. He expressed the conviction that the six hour day is the most efficient from the point of view of business itself. And I might say that the firm of Johnson and Johnson is operating today very successfully on a six hour day.

I could go on at length and read this article but I don't want to take up much time of the House. I want to say with reference to the exemptions asked for by certain businesses, certain merchants and certain industries as pertaining to this bill, if you grant an exemption to one business man you have got to grant it to all. If you grant an exemption to one industry you have got to grant it to all, and the only way it can be regulated is through the Department of Labor and Industry, because they can check as to whether the employer really is going to have a hardship worked upon him by the enactment of this act, and if so they have the authority to grant that exemption. While this bill is a 44-hour a week bill, many labor unions in different industries in the State have agreements and contracts with their employers whereby they work less than forty-hours per week but in certain cases, such as emergencies, such as repairs, cases where they were not able possibly to secure someone to take the place of an employe in some key position, all of those things are exempt in the labor contract, and when they are exempt in the labor contract, the Department of Labor and Industry recognizes that fact and will immediately issue exemption.

With reference to the glue factory as stated by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, I know and feel sure that an exemption will be granted to an industry of that kind whereby they have to work continuously for a certain number of hours. As to the exemption being granted by one man, that statement is not true. He can grant the exemption temporarily, it is true, with the consent of the members of the Industrial Board, and on that Industrial Board are representatives of Labor, representatives of the employers and representatives of the public, and I am sure that the Industrial Board is not going to take any advantage of any employer to say that this bill may work a hardship upon him by compelling him to live up strictly to the regulations as set down in the bill, but will grant any exemptions that may be necessary where it will work a hardship on him. If the Industrial Board finds or if the Department of Labor finds that the regulatory features of this bill will not work a hardship upon certain employes or certain business, but will put men to work, then I say that this is a good bill, and I shall ask the members of this House to vote for it.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. YOURISHIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, I apologize for not being in the House during Mr. Yourishin's full discussion of this bill. I am interested in the small merchants, the small restaurant people and the small hotel people. I represent a rural county, and I would like to know what procedure would be necessary by these individuals in these rural sections in order to be granted some exemption under sub-section (b) of Section 2? Just what steps are necessary.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, the only steps that are necessary if you feel the regulatory features are going to work a hardship on them is to apply to the Department of Labor and Industry, and they can immediately grant the exemption and take it up afterward with the Industrial Board for approval.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, will it be necessary for an individual or small merchant to prove that he is operating in the red or that his business is showing a loss in order to grant an exemption?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I don't think that it will be necessary for him to show that, as long as he can show that it is necessary for him to stretch the hours beyond 44 hours a week.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, will those exemptions be applied to just individuals or to certain business men or certain boroughs, or by counties or just how would it be set up?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I imagine it will be set up by certain localities, possibly districts, possibly cities and boroughs.

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, we haven't any definite assurance, though, that these small business men in small communities will be given consideration and granted exemptions if they can prove that it will work a hardship on them, other than we are authorizing the board to grant that exemption.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, the only assurance that we have is that the Department of Labor and Industry may make those exemptions.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Yourishin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. YOURISHIN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Luzerne whether there are any well known industries, I mean of any size in Pennsylvania, where the men work more than 44 hours at the present time except on an overtime provision?

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, I wouldn't know of any large industry that worked over 44 hours a week outside of certain positions that require them to work beyond 44 hours a week.

Mr. TURNER. But those are a rarity, aren't they, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. YOURISHIN. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not think any of us want to be misunderstood as opposing a 44-hour a week. I will be very happy if it is found that they can get along with less than 44 hours a week. As far as lawyers are concerned it might help in the middle of a case to say "Judge, I must quit, my 44 hours a week is up." Yes, and I think doctors too might like that, but that is not where it will work.

The gentleman from Luzerne is mistaken when he says they placed a provision in the bill as to Federal regulations. I am not complaining about Federal regulations. What the editorial meant and what I mean to say is this: that you will put Pennsylvania out of line with other states in the operation of its industry, and until you have a Federal bill you ought not to put Pennsylvania in that position. If Congress does enact a bill, then of course there wouldn't be anything gained by keeping Pennsylvania out of line with the general situation, but so as far as the amendments are concerned, they do not cover the question before us. As far as the 44 hour a week and its merits in creating further jobs, I think that is rather far fetched. In almost any industry in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that I know of, the men do not work more than 44 hours a week. I don't know what the situation is on the railroads, but I believe almost every large business and many small ones and I think in the smaller ones—it is generally in the operation of commercial enterprises, small stores, shops, hotels or things of that kind where it extents beyond that period. So as far as the objectives of labor are concerned as presented by the gentleman from Luzerne and the men who are interested from his angle, it seems to me they are already covered in almost all industries with which they deal.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman from Luzerne to realize that these are my own views. There are some of my colleagues probably that do not agree with them. I shall vote "no" on the bill, not because I am opposed to the 44-hour a week, but because I am opposed to giving to the Department, as I have stated on the floor, and have fought for years, against the extension of bureauracy in Pennsylvania and giving certain departments excessive authority and power.

Mr. YOURISHIN. Mr. Speaker, for the reasons that the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, just stated, it is wise to have a 44 hour bill and not a 30 hour bill, and for the same reasons sub-section (b) of Section 2 was placed in this bill "Where the strict application of the schedule of hours provided for by this section imposes an unnecessary hardship and violates the intent and purpose of this act, the Department of Labor and Industry with the approval of the Industrial Board may make, alter, amend and repeal general rules and regulations prescribing variations from such schedule of hours."

Mr. HINDMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this particular bill has caused me a great deal of concern and a great deal of worry and a great deal of thought. It so happens that I am in hearty accord with the tendency to reduce the hours of work, but there are certain features about this bill which, located as I am, I feel that it will be impossible for me to support it. I should like to state some of these reasons to the members of this House.

It so happens that we have in our community a large industrial plant, the American Zinc Chemical Company, a branch of the American Metal Company, which employs quite a large number of men. That company has been the industrial backbone of our community during depression. They kept working all the time, storing their products in order that they could give their men work. The men having been working under good conditions, and were apparently very well satisfied. They are working under union conditions, they get time and a half for overwork and they are being well taken care of. A friend of mine in that concern, who has risen from the rank came to me a few nights ago and insisted that it would work a very great hardship if this bill were to be enacted. It so happens that the nature of their work is such that it is very important in emergencies that they should have men to work overtime. The men appear to be very glad to do that. He also told me that they have a plant, which I very well know, in the State of Oklahoma, where they can produce the metal and sulphuric acid much cheaper than they can at this Langeloth Plant. They prefer, however, to keep the men employed in this Langeloth Plant. They do not say that they will leave, but they cannot very well curtail the men working for them there.

You can see, ladies and gentlemen of this House, how it would be a local problem with us. There have been very few bills in this House on which I have had more protests than I have had on this particular bill. It has not been representative of any one particular group, but the protests have been from labor, from Union labor, employers. I believe that the protests which I have had have been more from the employes and from Union labor than they have been from the employer. In this Assembly it seems that with regard to political affiliation we have had it from all types. It didn't seem to be unanimous with them to be against this particular measure.

I would like to just read one telegram from an editor of one of the papers in our county, in which he said:

"Hope you will do all in your power to defeat Senate Bill No. 1075 as its effect would be very serious to small business concerns, especially so in a business which must operate like ours on a six day basis. Forty-hour week development is logical development of improved labor situation, but confining work to within five days will seriously handicap many smaller business enterprises which are having difficulty now in competing with larger industries." (signed) John L. Stewart, President Observer Publishing Company.

And another telegram: "Since reading of the proposed so-called forty-four hour work week bill about to be enacted I hereby extend to you our disapproval of such, and ask you to help correct such legislation." (Signed) Frank A. Walts, President of Local No. 165, G. B. B. A.

Another one from Local No. 118, A. F. G. W. U:

"The forty-four hour week Labor Act in its present form is absurd, unworkable, outrageous and detrimental both to employer and to employe alike. Therefore we go on record and say to you, vote against this bill by all means." (Signed) Raymond Mowl, President.

And another one from James Snyder, President of Local 116, A. F. G. W. U:

"The forty-four hour week Labor Act in its present form is absurd, unworkable, outrageous and detrimental both to employer and employe alike. Therefore we go on record and say to you to vote against this bill by all means."

I also have one from Local 547 of the United Brick and Clay Workers of America, the following:

"The so-called forty-four hour work week bill has so many provisions that will put hardships on workers, we ask you to vote against it and to use your influence as a friend of labor. Our Local is satisfied with less weekly hours like we have now."

And I have a number of others, so, ladies and gentlemen, I am giving you my reasons, and to sum them up, they are as follows:

First, because of the great number of protests which I have received from representative labor groups as well as individual employers and employes in various lines of activity.

Second, on account of the large number of protests which I have received from various types of industry, a part of whom are employing large groups of men and a part of whom are employing small groups.

Third, because I do not believe the bill should be passed until the Federal government passes their bill limiting the hours of labor, on which it as been working for a long time.

Fourth, because the discretionary power granted to the Department of Labor and Industry is almost unlimited and beyond reason.

And, finally, in my opinion, the bill in its present form is unfair to labor and places an unnecessary burden on industry, especially certain types of the small employer.

Mr. REISING: Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I haven't bothered you much by the use of the microphone during this session, but this is a proposition that affects labor very much. I would like your indulgence for a few minutes to set forth a few facts and figures in connection with it.

First, I want to say that the charge made in the editorial read by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, indicting Labor unions for the fact that there is a shortage of certain types of skilled labor in that they prevent the apprentices from becoming journeyman mechanics is in error. The fact is that the depression is responsible not only for the fact that there has been a shortage of certain types of labor, but it is also responsible for the great army of unemployed in our country which we are trying to relieve of some of their unemployment by a division of te work, in that we are trying to shorten hours and improve their condition.

Now, we might carry this thing back to the panic in the early 90's; following that panic the shorter hours in the building trades and construction work broke the panic in that it provided additional employment for more people.

You carry that over to the 1907 panic and you will find again that in the railroad and other industries hours were shortened and the panic was broken. We were headed for a serious panic in 1912 and 1913 and the war stepped in and took care of it partly, but again in 1914 vision of the work, in that we are trying to shorten hours basis and the panic was broken. Again when you follow that down to 1921 the serious condition in the steel industry was broken up by the adoption of the eight hour day.

In the 1937 it is going to be necessary to adopt a policy that shorter hours be put into effect in order to take up this slack to a considerable extent.

With respect to what Doctor Hindman said with respect to the Burgettstown District, I do know that a great deal of inconvenience has been caused in that they use the streams as a sewer to carry away the poisons arising from their operations. Forty miles of creek going through our county cannot be used for anything except to look at because nothing can live in it, and I will add to that that in the Burgettstown District of Washington County there is more unemployment than in any other part of the county, and I am surprised that any man, business man or professional man in this House would vote for continued unemployment rather than setting up these shorter hours.

I want to say to you that this is one step in the direction of shorter hours and better working conditions for the working men because it does put more purchasing power into the hands of our people. I will ask the members of this House to vote for this bill.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Welliver, Shugarts, Flannery, Bierly, Wright, Toole, Schor, Hirsch, Hontz, Bohn, Spengler, Dickinson, Preston, Corrigan, Fitch, Reuben E. Cohen, Lewis, Wagner, Reese, Tumelty and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. FALKENSTEIN filed the following reason for his vote:

I am for this bill in principle, but I contend 35 hours would be more appropriate.

Mr. LEVY filed the following reason for his vote:

I am voting "yes" because I believe this bill to be a great stride in behalf of labor in Pennsylvania. Nevertheless, I wish to express my disatisfaction with the particular provisions of this bill which rest with the Secretary of Labor and Industry such board powers which I sincerely believe are dangerous to the welfare of our Commonwealth.

It is my sincere hope that the next Legislature will conscientiously attempt to rectify this fallacy.

Mr. JACOB F. MATTHEWS filed the following reason for his vote:

I am voting "no" on Senate Bill No. 1075 because I think it will work a hardship on all small business, as that is the only class this bill affects, as large business now has a 30 to 40 hour week.

Mr. PERRY filed the following reason for his vote:

I vote "no" upon this bill because, in my opinion, the bill is so drafted as to be impracticable of operation, and will affect harmfully the working man and woman of Pennsylvania, and will encourage rather than decrease our relief and unemployment problem. Although intending to better conditions of the working man, the bill in reality merely vests in the centralized Department of Labor and the Secretary of Labor, an arbitrary, dictatorial power over every business and industry in the Commonwealth. Such power always is accompanied by the ever present danger of political abuse.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER filed the following reason for his vote:

I vote "no" upon this bill because in my opinion the bill is too drastic. This bill will place, if enacted into law, dictatorial power in the Department of Labor and Industry, thus centralizing control over every business in this Commonwealth. It also opens the road to political abuse, if the Department of Labor so desires, regardless of political party in power.

HOUSE BILL No. 2348 MADE A SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 2348, Senate Bill No. 1074, Printer's No. 829, entitled:

An Act providing a method of annexation of boroughs to cities of the third class and regulating the proceedings pertaining thereto on page 3 of today's calendar, bills on third reading be made a special order of business on third reading and final passage immediately upon the adoption of this motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING
SPECIAL ORDER

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2348, (Senate Bill No. 1074), as follows:

An Act providing a method of annexation of boroughs to cities of the third class and regulating the proceedings pertaining thereto

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever electors equal to at least ten per centum of the highest vote cast for any office in any borough contiguous to a city of the third class at the last preceding general election shall petition the council of the borough for the annexation of the borough to the contiguous city and for a referendum on the question of such annexation the council shall cause a question to be submitted at the primary general or municipal election occurring at least sixty days thereafter or if no such election shall occur within ninety days after the presentation of such petition then at a special election to be called and held as provided by the election laws of this Commonwealth within such period of ninety days The council shall certify a resolution duly adopted to the county commissioners for submission of such question on the ballot or on voting machines at such election both in such borough and in the city of the third class to which annexation is desired in the manner provided by the election laws of this Commonwealth

Such question shall be in the following form

Do you favor the annexation of the borough of	Yes
to the city of ..... ?	No

If a majority of the persons voting on such question in the borough and a majority of the persons voting on such question in the city shall vote "yes" then the borough shall on the first Monday of January next following be and become a part of the city of the third class

Section 2 Until changed in the manner provided by law the borough if not divided into wards shall constitute a separate new ward of the enlarged city and if the borough at the time of the annexation was divided into wards then each ward of the borough shall constitute a separate new ward of the enlarged city and shall be numbered by the council of the city consecutively beginning with the next highest number after the existing highest numbered ward of the city Until changed in the manner provided by law all election districts in the borough shall remain as constituted at the time of the annexation and shall become election districts of the enlarged city All election and other officers of such election districts in office at the time of the taking effect of the annexation shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms unless sooner removed as provided by law

Section 3 All the indebtedness of the borough annexed to a contiguous city of the third class under the provisions of this act as well as the indebtedness of the city to which the same is annexed shall be paid by the city as enlarged by such annexation and all territory included within the limits of the same shall be liable for the payment of the floating and bonded indebtedness and the interest thereon of all the territory included within such enlarged city All taxes thereafter levied therefor shall be uniform throughout the territorial limits of the enlarged city

All of the public property owned by any such borough shall become and remain the public property of the city to which it is annexed

Section 4 When an election is held on the question of annexation under the provisions of this act and the borough proposed to be annexed votes against such annexation the question of such annexation shall not again be voted upon for a period of five years from the date of such election

Section 5 The provisions of this act are in addition to and shall not be construed to repeal or affect any of the provisions of article five of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto"

Section 6 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not propose to talk very long, but I do want to say a few words and explain Senate Bill No. 1074, so that you can have some idea what the bill is about. Under the present law, when a borough desires to be annexed to a third class city, a petition is signed by sixty percent of the taxable inhabitants, and then presented to borough council. When borough council receives that petition, the law says that borough council may pass a resolution asking the city to annex that borough. There is nothing in the present law which will allow the will of the people to be expressed, if you have a group of borough councilmen who have a selfish interest in retaining their office. In addition to that, under the present law any borough with a population of ten thousand persons or more is absolutely denied the privilege of joining or annexing to a third-class city if they so desire, because the present law excludes from it boroughs of ten thousand inhabitants or more.

In Senate Bill No. 1074 the conditions are as follows: when ten percent of the voters present a petition to borough council, then borough council must submit the question to the people for a vote, and the question is also submitted to the third-class city voters to which the borough is to be annexed, and if the majority of the voters in both the borough and the third-class city favor the annexation, then the annexation takes place.

I can conceive of no more democratic bill ever being presented in this House than Senate Bill No. 1074. It allows the people of both communities to decide this question for themselves, and I will ask the members of the House to support this bill and give the people of the boroughs and third-class cities an opportunity to express their own will in matters of annexation.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I come from a third-class city, and I am not impressed by the necessity of enlarging. I think there are ample statutes. As the population of communities increases in time you will find that the per capita tax also increases. Of course that might also indicate that the citizens in the community are receiving larger or greater services from the municipality with the larger population, but we must not only be impressed by the numbers. My community, a third-class city, is surrounded by three or four sizeable boroughs, yet I have had no requests either from the boroughs or from our city fathers to be in favor of this bill, and I feel that the present method of annexation is one that is adequately taking care of all the requirements. I ask the membership of the House to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. JAMES W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Welliver, Welsh, Frank P. Hamilton, Flannery, Baine, Murrin, Pearson, Nagle, Piole, Shaw, Rush, Lopresti, John J. Baker, Skale, Zappala, Hirsch, Hontz, Reuben E. Cohen, McElroy, Yanoshat, Dougherty and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. BIERLY filed the following reasons for his vote:

I am voting "aye" on this bill because it is a fair measure, giving only what is intended for every citizen, the right of a vote as to the type of his local government.

However, were I to be guided by the resentment within me, caused by the despicable lobbying tactics of certain proponents of the bill, I would vote "no." Personally, I see no reason why legislators should be publicly branded as knaves and liars, just because they refuse to side-track all other important matters, to satisfy the whim of certain men. I might add that lobbies which try to conceal personal motives with high pressure methods and manifestations of civic interest are not the vogue in Harrisburg this year.

BILL ON THIRD READING

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the House that House Bill No. 2203, Senate Bill No. 682, Printer's No. 687, on page 1 of today's calendar, bills on the final passage calendar, is there in error. This bill should appear on the third reading calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2203, (Senate Bill No. 682), as follows:

An Act making an appropriation for the expense of the joint legislative commission created by Senate Concurrent Resolution Serial Number one hundred six approved March sixteenth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the joint legislative commission created by Senate Concurrent Resolution Serial Number one hundred and six approved March sixteenth one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven and authorized thereby to make an investigation of the tax burdens placed upon industries in Pennsylvania and other industrial and mining states For the payment of the expenses of such investigation by the commission including the cost of subpoenaing witnesses witness fees stenographic service the wages or other compensation of necessary clerical assistants and any other expenses of every kind and description which may be authorized by a majority of the commission in connection with the conduct of its work

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been amended over and above the figure agreed upon by the Committee on Appropriations. However, I am informed by the Senator who is Chairman of the Committee, that the original figure contained in the bill will be sufficient with which to accomplish the purposes of the resolution, and knowing that the Governor has the authority to reduce the appropriation to the amount that he desires, even though the amount is higher than indicated by the Chairman of the Committee, I will ask the members of the House to vote for the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2332, (Senate Bill No. 69), as follows:

An Act to protect the obligors or guarantors of bonds and mortgages and owners of property affected thereby and others indirectly liable for the payment thereof by prohibiting for certain periods the foreclosure sale of mortgaged property at less than its fair market value and prescribing the method of fixing the fair market value of said property

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That hereafter before any execution shall issue against the mortgaged premises on the foreclosure of any mortgage or on a judgment entered on any obligation secured by mortgage the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall either (1) file a statement in the court having jurisdiction over such execution certifying under oath that he or they release and discharge the obligors and guarantors and any other parties liable directly or indirectly on the mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby from all personal liability on the mortgage debt interest costs taxes and municipal claims or (2) petition the court having jurisdiction to issue such execution to fix the fair market value of the property to be sold Said petition shall be signed and sworn to by the plaintiff or plaintiffs

Section 2 The petition shall set forth

(a) The location by address or description of the mortgaged real estate to be sold the name or names of the mortgagors and all other persons known to petitioner to be or who may be directly or indirectly liable to petitioner or any other person for the payment of said mortgage debt

(b) A statement of the fair market value of said property and

(c) Shall name as respondents and state the addresses of the obligors and guarantor and any other persons directly or indirectly liable to petitioner for the payment of said mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby

Section 3 The court shall thereupon fix a date for hearing on said petition not less than fifteen days after the filing thereof and said petition shall be served upon each and all of the persons named therein as respondents at least ten days prior to the date fixed for hearing At any time prior to the hearing and respondent or other person in interest may appear and answer setting up in his answer his interest in the proceedings and answering the averment of the petition

Section 4 Said petition may be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff of any other county specially deputized for that purpose upon the respondents named therein

(a) By handing an exact copy thereof to each of them personally or

(b) By leaving an exact copy thereof at the residence of each of them with an adult member of his family or

(c) If service cannot be had in either of the above methods and the return of the sheriff is that the respondent or respondents or any of them cannot be found in this county or State said respondent or respondents may be served by publishing in the legal newspaper of the county and one newspaper of general circulation in the county at least fifteen days prior to the day fixed for the hearing of such petition a notice to the said respondent or respondents of the filing of said petition and of the time and place fixed for hearing thereon Provided however That if there be no legal newspaper in the county then in one newspaper of general circulation in said county

Any obligor guarantor mortgagor and any other person liable directly or indirectly for the payment of the mortgage debt and any owner or owners of the property affected thereby who is not joined as a party defendant nor served with a petition as provided in this section shall be deemed to be discharged from all personal liability to the petitioner on the mortgage debt interest and costs but any such failure to serve the petition shall not be deemed to affect or impair the validity of any execution sale or the title secured thereby

Section 5 Return of the service of any petition shall set forth particularly the time place and manner of service and shall be filed before the time fixed for hearing No hearing shall be had until the court shall be satisfied that service has ben made upon all the respondents in any of the methods herein provided

Section 6 At such hearings any party in interest may introduce into evidence testimony of the fair market value of the premises to be sold

If no answer be filed within the time provided for in this Act or if an answer be filed which does not controvert the allegation of the fair market value of the property as averred in the petition the plaintiff or plaintiffs may file in the court a statement under oath releasing the obligors and guarantors and any other persons liable directly or indirectly for the mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected therby from personal liability to the extent of the fair market value as averred in the petition Whereupon the court shall order the sale to be proceeded with forthwith

If no answer be filed within the time herein provided for or if an answer be filed contraverting the averment in the petition as to the fair market value of the property and no testimony be produced at the hearing supporting such denial of the fair market value and no such declaration of release is filed by the plaintiff or plaintiffs prior to the hearing the court shall determine and fix as the fair value of the property and amount thereof alleged in the petition to be the fair market value

If answer be filed alleging as the fair market value an amount in excess of the fair market value of the property as averred in the petition the plaintiff or plaintiffs may agree to accept as the fair market value of the property the value set up in the answer and in such case may file under oath a declaration releasing the obligors and guarantors and any other persons liable directly or indirectly for the mortgage debt and the owners of the property affected thereby from personal liability to the extent of the fair market value as averred in the answer Whereupon the court shall order the sale to be proceeded with forthwith If an answer shall be filed and testimony produced setting forth that the fair market value of the property is more than the value stated in the petition the court shall determine and fix the fair market value of the premises which shall in no event exceed the amount of the mortgage debt interest costs taxes and municipal claims and for such purpose may appoint no more than three appraisers to assist the court in determining said fair value

After the hearing and the determination by the court of the fair market value of the property to be sold the execution may issue but said property shall not be sold for less than the fair market value so determined and fixed

Section 7 If said property cannot be sold at a price equal or greater than the fair market value so fixed a report thereof shall be made by the plaintiff or plaintiffs to the court whereupon the court shall postpone the sale of the premises for a period not exceeding six months from the date of such report No notice or advertisement shall be required for such postponed sale

Section 8 If at such postponed sale a price equal to or greater than the fair market value of the property shall not be bid a report thereof shall be made to the court whereupon the court shall again postpone the sale of the premises for an additional period not exceeding six months No notice or advertisement shall be required for such postponed sale

Section 9 If at such second postponed sale a price equal to or greater than the fair market value of the property shall not be bid a report thereof shall be made to the court whereupon the court may order said sale confirmed to the highest bidder or may postpone the sale in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the previous postponements for such further periods not exceeding an aggregate of one year as the court shall deem equitable and just

Section 10 Nothing in this act shall be construed to affect the right of any mortgagor and any person liable directly or indirectly for the payment of the mortgage debt to the benefit of any amount realized on any execution sale in excess of the fair market value fixed or agreed to in accordance with the provisions of this act Provided That the provisions of this act shall not apply to the foreclosure of any mortgage held by any Federal land bank or the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation if at the time of said foreclosure the United States of America owns a majority of the capital stock of such bank or corporation

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2187, Senate Bill No. 678, Printer's No. 421, on page 3 of today's calendar, bill on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. SIMON.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 2187, (Senate Bill No. 678), entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand six hundred one of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 103) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by providing that townships of the second class shall have power to develop their own water supply.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, we had this bill placed on the postponed calendar recently because we felt that the subject was covered by other measures before the House. I discussed the matter with Senator Rupp and he was of the same impression. He said he had no further interest in the bill. The bill, therefore, should have been dropped from the calendar. If I remember rightly the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran, had a bill which I think covered the same question and there are two or three other bills.

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I am not sure that this is covered by another bill, and I am not sure that it is. This is legislation allowing cities of all classes, allowing boroughs and allowing townships of the first class to develop their own water supply. Now, I don't know whether Mr. Moran passed his bill or not, but I ask that the second class townships have this privilege, as they would like to take advantage of it. They were told by the Department of Forests and Waters that they could not do anything until this bill was passed, or some appropriate legislation that has to do with it anyhow, so I oppose the motion to have it dropped.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I introudced the bill that passed this House that covered all the provisions of this bill. I also had this measure up in 1935. It seems that several members of the Senate, however, waited until we got some of our bills over there and then they introduced bills covering the same subject. This particular Senator, Senator Rupp, has my bill in his committee, and nobody has been able to get it moved out. Therefore, I do not think, Mr. Speaker, we should pass this bill when we have a much better bill, which gives all the people of Pennsylvania an opportunity to participate in House Bill No. 250 which I introduced back in January. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I will support Mr. Turner on this motion.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I have the utmost sympathy with the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran, but I do not see why second class townships should be penalized on account of Senator Rupp. I supported Mr. Moran's bill. I am sorry that it did not go through, but that is not the fault of the second-class townships in my county and the other counties in the State. I do not see why second class townships, that probably need it as much as any other, should be deprived of the right.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BAINE and Mr. MARINO and were as follows:

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2507, (Senate Bill No. 930), entitled:

An Act to repeal the laws relating to the Lancaster County Prison and relating to the election of a board of inspectors to manage said prison

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill No. 930 is a bill to repeal special laws relating to the Lancaster County Prison. Rule 59 reads: "No local or special bill shall be passed by the House unless the same shall be accompanied by proof of the publication of the notice thereof, in accordance with law, and proof of such publication shall be certified to by the Chairman of the Committee reporting the bill, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 8."

I would like to know, Mr. Speaker, whether that provision has been adhered to.

The SPEAKER. In response to the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood, the Chair wishes to read Section 8 of Art. III of the Constitution of Pennsylvania: "No local or special bill shall be passed unless notice of the intention to apply therefor shall have been published in the locality where the matter or the thing to be affected may be situated, which notice shall be at least thirty days prior to the introduction into the General Assembly of such bill and in the manner to be provided by law; the evidence of such notice having been published, shall be exhibited in the General Assembly before such act shall be passed."

The Chair wishes to inquire of the lady from Lancaster, Mrs. Horting, whether or not the constitutional provision governing this case has been complied with.

Mrs. HORTING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is my understanding that that has been done. I was not aware that it was to be done in the House, because this is a Senate bill, and it is my understanding that it was done in the Senate when the bill was introduced. I saw the notice as it appeared in the local press. That is all I know.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, the notice must be exhibited on the floor of the House. Has that been adhered to?

The SPEAKER. Notice of publication must be filed with the original bill. The original bill is in the Senate and can be seen there. The Chair is informed it is in the Senate.

Mr. TURNER. While that may be true, Mr. Speaker, from reading the provision of the Constitution, that is not true under the rule of the House.

The SPEAKER. The rule of the House applies to House bills and not to Senate bills. The Constitution covers bills in the General Assembly.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TURNER. Will the Speaker read the rule of the House?

The SPEAKER. Rule 59 reads: "No local or special bill shall be passed by the House unless the same shall be accompanied by proof of the publication of the notice thereof, in accordance with law, and proof of such publication shall be certified to by the Chairman of the Committee reporting the bill, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 8."

Mr. TURNER. Will you read that again Mr. Speaker, just the first part.

The SPEAKER. "No local or special bill shall be pased by the House unless the same shall be accompanied by proof of the publication of the notice thereof, in accordance with law,—"

Mr. TURNER. That says that it shall be accompanied by proof of the publication. "No local or special bill shall be passed by the House.—" It does not say that that is a House bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will send the messenger of the House to the Senate to get the proof of publication. The Clerk will get the proof of publication, and the bill will be passed over for the present.

BILLS DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 993, Senate Bill No. 85, Printer's No. 48, entitled:

An Act to amend sections four thousand four hundred and one and four thousand four hundred and two of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred thirty-two) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" placing under civil service salaried positions in connection with the operation and maintenance of a water supply system on page 2 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, be dropped from the calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 2397, Senate Bill No. 1219, Printer's No. 572, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one, three, eight and ten of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty three (P. L. 858) entitled, "An act establishing a State employes retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds for contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes; defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom; and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve; excepting annuities allowances, returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," as amended, qualifying members of the General Assembly as members of the state retirement system.

on page 2 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, be dropped from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I think this is a very unkind motion of the gentleman from York. I was deprived of the chance of running for the Legislature by the Apportionment Bill, and then I was deprived of the chance of running for Judge of the Municipal Court by the ripping out of the court, and now in my old age, after having served here several terms I am about to be deprived of fourteen dollars a month retirement pension.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware knows that irrespective of how highly I esteem his friendship, that it is only my duty to the Commonwealth that impels me to make this motion. This bill will necessitate possibly an increase in the Commonwealth's expenditures, and an increase of the Commonwealth's tax of over $700,000 immediately in this biennium, with increased cost as it goes on. The members of the House of Representatives and the Senate have never been considered necessarily employes of the State, and I ask the members of the House to support the motion to drop this bill from the calendar.

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. REUBEN E COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, if this bill were passed, would he retire from the House?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the gentleman from Philadelphia, not meaning to be unkind, and asking his pardon for not using parliamentary language, —it is none of his business.

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, I invoke Rule No. 71 of the House. I believe Rule No. 71 specifically states that any person having a pecuniary interest in the determination of a question will not be permitted to vote on the question.

The SPEAKER. Only those members who do not intend to run for re-election will be permitted to vote.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. JIROLANIO. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that it is against the laws of this House to be influenced in your voting?

The SPEAKER. It is also against the rules to vote on a bill in which you are interested. As the Chair stated only those who do not intend to run for re-election will be permitted to vote. The Chair sees that we are going to have an entirely new House.

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BAINE and Mr. CAPUTO and were as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 5, 1937.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Chief Clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives be directed to have the copy of the Journals of the two Houses of this session prepared and placed in the hands of the Director of the Bureau of Publications within thirty days after the close of the session, and the Director of the Bureau of Publications is hereby directed to have said Journals printed, bound and delivered to the Chief Clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives within ninety days after the receipt of the copy therefor.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

BILL ON THIRD READING

(S. B. 930)

The SPEAKER. The Chair now has at the desk the certification of the advertisement in the local newspapers of Lancaster.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may we see the certification?

(The certification was handed to Mr. Turner).

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in order that the record may be clear, the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood having formally raised the point of order and the bill having been passed over, it seems to me that we ought to again raise the point of order that the bill is not in compliance with the rule and with the provisions of the Constitution.

POINT OF ORDER RENEWED

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood, who renews his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the Chair has presented the certification of the publication of notice of application to repeal local and special legislation relating to the Lancaster County Prison, which is signed by Austin E. McCullough, said certification being dated June 5, 1937 and containing a "Paid" stamp marked 4-26, which reads as follows: "I hereby certify that the advertisement herein appeared in the Lancaster "New Era" and the "Intelligencer Journal" of general circulation on the days and dates before set forth."

I would ask the Chair to inspect the certificate and see whether the statement as I have read it is correct. Or perhaps it would be better if the Chair would read into the record the certification as I have given it. In other words, Mr. Speaker, I am asking to have it placed officially on the record, because I do not want it to appear as my statement as to what the certificate shows.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman, there is in the legislative record on the day that this bill was introduced, a copy of the original certification concerning this bill. We do not have that at the desk at the present time, but it will be here shortly.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate that, but I think we can save a lot of time, unless you want to proceed on the statement that the day the bill was introduced it was accompanied by a certification of publication. Then I would have to state to the Chair that House Rule No. 59 provides that:

"No local or special bill shall be passed by the House unless the same shall be accompanied by proof of the publication of the notice thereof, in accordance with law, and proof of such publication shall be certified to by the Chairman of the Committee reporting the bill, as required by the Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 8."

Therefore, this bill could not be passed here, because it does not have with it the certification, nor the certification by the Chairman of the Committee to that effect. It must have two things: proof of publication, and it shall be certified to by the Chairman of the Committee reporting the bill, as required by the Constitution.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will rule on the point of order raised by the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Wood, and discussed by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

Rule No. 59 states: "No local or special bill shall be passed by the House unless the same shall be accompanied by proof of the publication of the notice thereof, in accordance with law, and proof of such publication shall be certified to by the Chairman of the Committee reporting the bill, as required by the Constitution. Art. III, Sec. 8."

The Chair wishes to further read Section 2 of Act No. 33 of the Session of 1874.

"Evidence of Publication: The evidence of publication aforesaid shall be by attaching to a bill a copy or copies, as the case may be, of said notice, verified by the affidavit of the owner, publisher, editor, or foreman of each of the said several newspapers in which said notice is by this act required to be published of due compliance with the preceding section."

The Chair is of the opinion that the law has been complied with, and the intent of the rule has been complied with, and wishes to read into the record the certification of the advertisement.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, before you read into the record, may I say to you that I feel that your ruling that the intent of the rule has been complied with does not meet the requirements. We do not have things according to the intent of the rules. This is a specific direction of a specific thing that must be done, and therefore, I feel that the Chair is wrong, if I may say so, in its decision, because there is a specific mandate under Rule No. 59 as to what must accompany the proof of publication and what must be done with it. It is true that insofar as the Constitution is concerned it merely requires that proof of publication shall be exhibited, but the Legislature has gone beyond that in Rule No. 59 and in the Act of Assembly.

The SPEAKER. In reply to the point of order raised by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau has stated to the Chair that he feels the rules of the House must conform with the Constitution and with the Acts of the Assembly, and that it has been the custom in the General Assembly when filing proof of publication with the original bill that it would accompany the original bill and would be left in the body in which the bill was introduced, either the House or the Senate; that it would be physically impossible for the proof of publication to follow the bill from one house to the other, and for those reasons, the Chair feels that the point of order of the gentleman is not well taken and that the bill is properly before the House.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I call to the attention of the Chair, notwithstanding my great respect for the legal ability of the head of the Reference Bureau, that there is nothing contrary in the law as far as Rule No. 59 is concerned, because the first part of Rule No. 59 follows the directions of the Constitution, but the second part of it goes farther and sets up as a rule of the House what must be done. Whether it is expeditous to have the certification follow the bill or what other procedure is necessary is not for us to determine in face of the specific direction of Rule 59 as to what must be done. Therefore, it seems to me, in view of the specific direction, any other ruling of the Chair is contrary to the specific directions of the rules of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau advises the Chair that it has always been the practice in the General Assembly to attach, according to the law, a copy or copies, as the case may be, of the certification of the publication. This is attached to the original bill, and since the original bill does not go from one house to the other, but a printed copy of the bill does, it would be physically impossible to transmit from one house to the other the certification of publication and still comply with the law.

Mr. TURNER. Therefore, what does the Speaker rule?

The SPEAKER. The Chair so rules.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I then ask whether the paper which you have before you is offered as the certification, or copy of the certification, which was attached to the bill upon its introduction?

The SPEAKER. This is not the certification that was attached to the original bill.

Mr. TURNER. I asked whether that was a copy, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman from Delaware, the Chair advises the gentleman that this is not a copy of the original but is a certification which does not comply with the law.

Mr. TURNER. It does or does not, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. It does not.

Mr. TURNER. Then, Mr. Speaker, if that is the case, you are ruling on the point in my favor when you say it does not—

The SPEAKER. We are ruling only on this particular paper.

Mr. TURNER. But, Mr. Speaker, you say it does not comply with the law.

The SPEAKER. The law states that the certification shall be filed with the original bill when introduced and this is not the one that was filed with the original bill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I understand that, but you said it does not comply with the law, and I asked then if you were not ruling in my favor.

The SPEAKER. No.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I cannot understand. In the words of the gentleman from Allegheny, will you elucidate?

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to advise the gentleman from Delaware that his ruling was not upon the certification originally attached to the bill as it was introduced. It is only on the paper on the desk.

Mr. TURNER. Then, Mr. Speaker, if I may re-state it: Do I understand that you are stating that the certification which is on the desk is sufficient compliance with both the law and the rules of the House?

The SPEAKER. This bill was not, as the gentleman well knows, introduced in the House. It is a Senate bill and the certification must accompany the original bill which was introduced in the Senate and was referred to the Senate Committee.

Mr. TURNER. Then, Mr. Speaker, do I understand that this is a certification which is now here, which has been offered, and which you are now ruling, is sufficient to meet the requirements of the Constitution and the rules of the House?

The SPEAKER. The Chair has stated that the certification filed with the original bill will be found with the bill in the Senate, and that that complies with the law.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate that that complies with the law, but then what is the purpose of the certification which is at the desk?

The SPEAKER. This was brought here in order to satisfy the gentleman from Delaware and the gentleman from Lancaster that the law was complied with in the matter of publication of notice of application for the repeal of local or special legislation, and was properly advertised.

Mr. TURNER. Then, Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that although this bill is not accompanied by proof of publication or certification by the Chairman of the Committee reporting the bill that such publication was made, your ruling is that it is in order to consider the bill?

The SPEAKER. This rule can only be practically applied to House bills and not to Senate bills.

Mr. TURNER. There is no such provision in the rule, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Therefore the Chair feels that the bill is properly before the House.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I have the proof of publication which has been offered? May I have it in my possession?

(Certification of publication handed to Mr. Turner.)

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to have it noted in the Journal, in the first place, that there is no proof of publication here, nor a certification by the Chairman of the Committee reporting the bill that proof of publication was made and was presented to the Committee.

In the second place, I raise the point of order that under the law, where publication is required, publication must likewise be made in the legal journal of the county in which publication of such notices are had.

The SPEAKER. As to the point of order raised by the gentleman from Delaware, the Chair rules the point of order not well taken as to publication in the legal journal. The Act of Assembly of 1874 does not so provide. However, after September 1st of this year that will be the requirement of the law.

Mr. TURNER. A later Act of Assembly, Mr. Speaker, does require publication in the legal journal of all legal notices.

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman from Delaware, the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau advises the Chair that there is a later Act of Assembly which provides that legal notices shall be published in the legal journals but this has never been applied to cases similar to this where notice of publication to repeal any existing local or special law, for the reason that the Act of 1874 was passed specifically to carry out the provisions of Section 8 of Art. III of the Constitution, and this act has never been amended or changed.

Mr. TURNER Mr. Speaker, I asked for the original proof of publication filed with the Committee in the Senate.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, on the request of the gentleman from Delaware, I wish to submit to the House that the bill having been originally introduced in the Senate, the House must rely on the assumption that the Senate has complied with the Constitution. I am further advised by the lady from Lancaster that the advertisement was made for this matter both in the newspapers of general circulation and in the legal journal of Lancaster County, and that those proofs of publication were submitted with the original bill at the time the bill was introduced. The original bill and the proofs of publication both in the newspapers of general circulation and in the Legal Journal are in the possession of the Committee that originally entertained the bill, the Committee on Counties in the Senate, the Chairman of which is Senator Rupp, of Lehigh.

The SPEAKER. In reply to the request of the gentleman from Delaware that the Chair get the original certification relative to the publication of this notice, the Chair wishes to advise the gentleman that the only method the House will have of obtaining the original copy of this certification would be by the adoption of a resolution asking the Senate to furnish this document to the House. The Chair can furnish the extract from the journal showing that the certification was filed with the original bill.

Mr. TURNER Will the Chair do so?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will send the Parliamentarian. I am sure he will bring back the copy of the journal. The bill will be passed over until the Parliamentarian returns.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON RULES

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN offered a report from the Committee on Rules which was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 5, 1937.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That this regular session of the General Assembly adjourn sine die June 5, 1937 at 11:45 o'clock, p. m.

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES:

ROY E. FURMAN
HERBERT B. COHEN
JOSEPH A. SIMON
JOHN J. O'KEEFE
LEO A. ACHTERMAN
JOSEPH OMINSKY.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report from the Committee on Rules?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON THIRD READING
(S. B. 930)

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, has requested that we secure from the Senate, from their official records that this bill was publicly advertised in accordance with the law. The Chair will read from the extracts of the official proceedings of the Senate of May 26, 1937, which was furnished by one of the Official Reporters of the Senate, who is now present in the House.

"Mr. THOMPSON. This bill is a bill which has been advertised throughout Lancaster County under the provisions of the Constitution and laws of this State, to repeal special acts relative to Lancaster County Prison, which acts were passed prior to the Constitution of 1874.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to press that point further, because the notes from the Senate do not show that the publication was for thirty days. It does say that it was published.

CONSTITUTIONAL POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I have in my hand a paper headed "Lancaster Newspapers, Inc., 8 West King Street, Lancaster. Notice of local or special legislation." A copy of the notice was attached and there is a certification sworn to by Austin E. McCullough, "that the advertisement herein appeared in the Lancaster New Era and the Intelligencer Journal of general circulation on the days and dates above set forth" on said paper.

The said paper says that the date of publication is 3/18-25/37, 4/1-8-37, and therefore the record shows that Senate Bill No. 93[illegible] was introduced by Mr. Thompson on April 13, 1937, which would be twenty-six days after the date of publication and not thirty days as required under the Constitution.

I therefore raise that point of order.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mrs. HORTING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The lady will state her question of information.

Mrs. HORTING. Mr. Speaker, whether the certification of publication which the Chair now holds is official or not.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has ruled that it is not the official copy of the certification.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, did the Chair not rule that the bill having been introduced in the Senate and passed by the Senate, that this House must presume that the Senate acted within the constitutional limitations?

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman from York, there has been no ruling on that point of order. The Chair ruled that the official notice of publication must accompany the bill, and it would be physically impossible to have that notice in the House, since it is a Senate bill and must accompany the original bill introduced.

The Chair will rule on the point of order raised by the gentleman from Delaware. The Chair has already ruled that the paper now on the desk is not an official paper; that it is not the original attached to the bill when introduced, therefore, any information this paper may contain cannot be used in the proceedings.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I realize that the paper is not a copy, or I presume it is not a copy, because we have nothing to prove it, of the certificate as produced in the Senate, and that there is nothing to show that it is. I did not offer it for that purpose. I offered the paper and produced here the proof that the publication was not thirty days prior to the introduction of the bill as required by the Constitution. That, therefore, has nothing to do with the question of the proof of publication in the Senate nor whether the provision of the Constitution insofar as presentation in the Senate is concerned.

In addition, I call to the attention of the Chair and his officers the fact that the memo from the Senate does not say that the Chairman of the Committee did produce any proof of publication. He made a statement that the publication had been made but there is nothing on the record to show that any proof was produced. This certificate is a sworn statement by the publisher of the paper, Mr. McCullough, and was offered here tonight in the beginning as proof of publication, and the date as set forth therein shows clearly and conclusively that this bill was not advertised thirty days before its introduction in the Senate, and therefore this is not concerned with the question of whether the Senate did or did not have the proof of publication before it or whether the Senate complied with the rule of exhibiting the proof in the Senate before its passage. It goes to the basic question as to whether this bill was advertised thirty days before its introduction.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware has raised the constitutional question as to whether the provisions of the law have been complied with relative to the time of advertisement prior to the introduction of the bill. The Chair therefore, as has been the custom, will present this question to the House.

On the question,

Will the House sustain the Constitutional point of order?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I submit that this House does not have the authority to rule upon the constitutionality of the action consummated in the Senate. The record of the Senate has already been read to this House whereby the Senator from Center, Mr. Thompson, in addressing the Senate indicates that this bill had been advertised and that the proof of publication was submitted, and apparently no question as to the veracity or the accuracy of those statements was raised in the Senate. The Senate having acted favorably upon the bill, this House must presume that the actions of the Senate were correct in that regard.

I cite for the benefit of the membership of this House a line of cases that were presented to the House on the question of judicial apportionment, where the General Assembly is constrained to effectuate judicial apportionment every ten years, and in cases thereunder, the court has said in ruling on innumerable cases: "It must be presumed that the Legislature has acted within its constitutional limitations."

I submit to the Chair and to the membership in this regard that we as a branch of the General Assembly must rely upon the constitutional actions of the Senate particularly in view of the fact that this House knows that these constitutional questions were discussed upon the floor of the Senate.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask leave to make a statement in reply to the gentleman from York, which has a bearing on the parliamentary question before the House, and I trust that the Chair will not rule me out of order on the ground that the only question before the House is the constitutional question.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has submitted the question to the House, and it is a debatable question.

Mr. TURNER. The gentleman from York is far away from the question I have raised. Nor do I think the issue at this moment is the question of what the Senate did. We are past that point as I see it. What I am stating is that there is a constitutional inhibition against passing any special law that has not been advertised for more than thirty days. Now that is a clear diction. It does not say that the Senate shall have jurisdiction, shall alone have jurisdiction over bills that have been presented in the Senate. It says that no special bills shall be passed without having been advertised for thirty days.

I am now raising a point of order that clearly under the certificate and proof of publication which I have offered, this measure was not published for thirty days. The absurdity of the position of the gentleman from York would be this, that the court, while it would not inquire into the ordinary procedure of the Legislature, certainly would take cognizance in any trial before it on the question of proof that the publication was not thirty days before the introduction into the Senate. The record being clear that it was not published thirty days before the introduction. That is a matter of record. It is clear, and the court would have to take cognizance of that fact and would have to rule this bill unconstitutional.

Therefore it is an absurd position in my mind to try to evade here by specious argument that we cannot take cognizance of what the Senate did, and throw this case into the position where it will have to be tried by the Court, and where there can be but one conclusion when it is heard by the court. There is no dispute of the facts; the facts are clear. Mr. McCullough certainly would not have sworn to a false statement. He certainly would not perjure himself in this matter, because Mr. McCullough happens to be a member of the Democratic Party. He is in that county and he has an interest in this bill as a Democrat of Lancaster County, and therefore if he states in his certificate as sworn to and submitted, that the publication was on the 18th day and that the date of the introduction of the bill is shown specifically as the 18th, twenty-six days having elapsed, it cannot be thirty days, I do not believe that any lawyer will say that the court will not take cognizance of those plain facts.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary procedure.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary procedure.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, what procedure shall we take if we are to vote on this bill, where it is clearly stated that the bill must be advertised thirty days previous; that the original is not available for the House to act upon, inasmuch as it is purely a Senate record, and this bill is sent to the House for approval, without the original copy of advertisement accompanying it, how then shall we proceed on any measure either from this House to the Senate or from the Senate to the House other than a statement in the Journal by a member of the Senate that the legal procedure has taken place before having voted on the bill?

The SPEAKER. That is a matter for each member to decide for himself. The Chair has submitted the question to the House, and it is for the members themselves to decide.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, from the information before the Chair, can the Chair state to the members of this House when the advertising did take place?

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman from Monroe, the Chair would state that there is on the desk at the present time a paper which indicates that the first advertisement appeared on the 18th of March, but the Chair has previously ruled that this paper is not the official paper accompanying the bill, and therefore, it is not to be considered.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, can the Chair inform the members of the House when this bill was first introduced in the Senate?

The SPEAKER. The record of the Senate shows that it was introduced on the 13th of April.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, did a period of thirty days intervene between the advertising and the introduction into the Senate so far as the Chair is able to inform the members of this House?

The SPEAKER. The Chair has already stated that it does not have the original records that were submitted with the bill, but the information at the desk indicates a period of twenty-six days.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, is this House part of the General Assembly as within the purview of the Constitution of Pennsylvania?

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman from Monroe, this House is a part of the General Assembly.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, a further question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, does not the Constitution provide official notice can be given to the General Assembly, which would include this House, that there has been compliance with the Constitution as to the official length of time of advertising, to wit, thirty days?

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Achterman, the Chair will read from Section 8 of Article 111 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania: "The evidence of such notice having been published, shall be exhibited in the General Assembly before such act shall be passed."

The Chair takes that to mean that evidence of notice could be submitted in any part of the General Assembly, either of the two parts, the Senate or the House. It does not state that it shall be introduced in the House and in the Senate; it says: "In the General Assembly."

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, have we any positive information, or has the Chair any positive information, that there has been advertising within the requirements of the Constitution?

The SPEAKER. The Chair has submitted to the House all the information that is available at the desk or that can be obtained from the Senate. This information consists of the notice on the desk and the extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was the statement of the Senator from Centre, in which he stated at the time the bill was before the Senate that the provisions of the Constitution had been complied with.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, on the question of information, I would like to call attention of the Chair to the fact, so that the Chair may not be misled, that the statement of the Senator, Mr. Thompson was: "This bill is a bill that has been advertised throughout Lancaster County under the provisions of the Constitution and laws of this State to repeal special acts relative to Lancaster County Prison, which acts were passed prior to the Constitution of 1874."

It does not say that he exhibited the proof of publication before the Senate.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, does not all the information as laid before the Chair indicate that there has not been advertising thirty days previous to the introduction of this bill?

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman; the point of order raised by the gentleman is the point of order that the Chair has already submitted to the House for the members to decide.

QUESTIONS OF INFORMATION

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I rise to a question of information, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am merely asking the Chair to state to the members of this House from the information before the Chair, the number of days previous to the introduction of this bill that the advertising took place.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has already stated that to the House from what information is available to the Chair.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, would the Chair mind stating again to the members of the House the number of days previous to the introduction that this bill was advertised.

The SPEAKER. From the paper which the Chair now has, which is not official evidence, it indicates that the advertisement was twenty-six days prior to the introduction of the bill. The Chair wishes the gentleman to understand that this is not an official paper.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary procedure.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary procedure.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as the Chair has already ruled that the question before the House is up to the individual members to decide, can I now move the previous question.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the motion is unnecessary. The Chair feels that the House is ready for the question.

On the question recurring,

Will the House sustain the Constitutional point of order?

QUESTIONS OF INFORMATION

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, in voting on this question, I should like if the Speaker would say definitely, because it is not clear to me, and I do not know how I can vote, because the only thing we have before us is the bill, and as I understand this question of constitutionality, it is whether or not the thirty days as required under Section 8 of Article III has been complied with. I should like the Speaker to state definitely what evidence we have to determine whether we can vote yes or no on the question.

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, we have unofficial evidence which shows that the notice was published in two newspapers twenty-six days prior to the introduction of the bill. We have official evidence, which is the extract from the Journal of the Senate, the sponsor of the bill stating that this bill has been advertised. The Chair will read from the extract: "This bill is a bill which has been advertised throughout Lancaster County under the provisions of the Constitution and laws of this State to repeal special acts relative to Lancaster County Prison, which acts were passed prior to the Constitution of 1874."

That is all the evidence that the Chair has to lay before the House.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, from the unofficial communication on the desk of the Speaker, it is a mathematical fact, is it not, that thirty days did not expire prior to the introduction of this bill?

The SPEAKER. From the information on this unofficial paper, the Chair has stated that it shows twenty-six days elapsed from the time of the first advertisement until the time of the introduction of the bill.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, has the Chair knowledge of any decision whereby the House can take the records of the Senate as official documents on the ground that the Senate has complied with the law?

The SPEAKER. In reply to the gentleman from Allegheny, the presumption exists that the Senate has complied with the provisions of the law and of the Constitution. However, that presumption is not conclusive.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the Speaker whether or not that is a presumption of practice and custom of the General Assembly or a presumption of law?

The SPEAKER. That is a presumption of law.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, while you were careful to state to the House that the paper before you was not an official paper, I again call to the attention of the members of the House that this was not offered as an official paper of the proceedings of the Senate or of the House. It is, however, a sworn statement of publication which says that the publication started on the 18th day of March, which was twenty-six days. In the second place, Section 8 of Article III says:

"Evidence of such notice having been published, shall be exhibited in the General Assembly before such act shall be passed." There is nothing in the statement of the gentleman from Center, Mr. Thompson, and therefore it is to be presumed, as that is offered as a record of the Senate, that there is nothing to show that the evidence of such notice having been published was exhibited in the General Assembly before such act was passed. The plain statement of Senator Thompson would not be evidence. The way to produce evidence would be to introduce the sworn statement of the publisher of the paper. I therefore take it that in the Senate, according to the record produced, there was no evidence that this had been produced before the Senate. There is no evidence produced before the House, and the only evidence that is produced before the House is that this act was not published thirty days. It makes no difference whether the presumption of law be that the Senate complied with the law or not, the fact is that the publication was not thirty days. It is therefore unconstitutional, and the fact that the Senate passed it has nothing to do with the question before the House. I wish to advise further that the proof of publication did not come from me, but came from the lady from Lancaster, Mrs. Horting.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, commenting on the question with which the House is now confronted, I wish to state that I do not think there is a member in the House who would likely accept any of the evidence that has been submitted before the House by the Speaker. The statement in the Journal of the remarks of the gentleman from Center are not proper evidential facts, and are not presented in the proper evidential manner for the consideration of this House. Nor is the Notary's affidavit from the publisher of the newspaper. All that this House in reality has before it is the bill introduced in the Senate, passed by the Senate, and the presumption of law is that the Senate has complied with the Act of Assembly and the Constitution, and until that presumption is vitiated by proper evidence submitted to this House this House has nothing to do but rely upon the presumption of law that exists, that the Senate adhered both to the Constitution and to the Acts of Assembly hereunder. And I submit, until that presumption is removed by competent and proper legal evidence this House has nothing before it except the presumption of valid action on the part of the Senate.

MOTION TO LAY BILL ON THE TABLE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact then, on the argument of the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, that the House has no proof before it, and that the evidence of what happened in the Senate is not proof, until we can get from the Senate the official proof, I move that the bill be laid upon the table.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, is anything in order but a vote on the constitutional point of order raised by the gentleman from Delaware?

The SPEAKER. The point of order raised by the gentleman from Delaware must be decided first before any motion can be acted upon.

On the question recurring.

Will the House sustain the Constitutional point of order?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. WOOD and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—34

So the question was determined in the negative and the Constitutional point of order was not sustained.

REASON FOR VOTE

Mr. BROWN filed the following reason for his vote:

Inasmuch as the Speaker has ruled that a presumption of law arises that the Senate has done what it should do under the Constitution, I vote "no" although I do not think evidence of the advertising is sufficient.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mrs. HORTING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am very confident that this bill will stand or fall on its merits rather than on a technicality. I feel confident that the letter of the law has been complied with, and therefore I am rising in support of this bill.

I would like to say that the purpose of this bill, is to repeal nine present laws, special laws relating to the government and control of the Lancaster County prison, and also the election of a board of prison inspectors. These special laws have been accumulating since 1850, and it is the intention of this act to repeal these laws so that hereafter the Lancaster County prison may be administered under the provisions of the General Act of Assembly of 1921 known as Pamphlet Law 579. I call your attention to the fact that the title of this Pamphlet Law reads thus: "Providing for the better management of the jails and county prisons in the various counties of this Commonwealth in the third and fourth class."

I shall not speak further; I am simply asking you to vote "aye" so that we may in the County of Lancaster be brought under the act which as the title says is for "The better management of the prisons of Lancaster County."

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Welliver, McDermott, Decker, Whalen, Flannery, Baine, Bierly, Wright, Burrows, McElroy, Bohn, Schor, Rush, Hontz, Spengler, Dickinson, Kilroy, James W. Patterson, Gorski, McCullaugh, Reuben E. Cohen, Wagner and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. WOOD.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

YEAS—103

Alexander,	Dougherty,	McElroy,	Schor,

Section 5 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is one of the relief bills. The bills grow worse, the plan grows more vicious, the political machine grows richer. When this bill left the House it had in it a provision that the Mothers' Assistance employes should be transferred to the new Board. Dave Lawrence took that out in the Conference Committee. The ripping is now complete. You ripped out the Poor Boards and all the employes of the Poor Boards. You have ripped out the County Commissioners' employes in counties where they do not have the Poor Boards.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Speaker, will you call the gentleman from Dauphin to order when he mentions Dave Lawrence's name as having ripped them out?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman has the floor. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, you ripped out the Mother's Assistance Boards trustees. You have ripped out the employes now of the Mother's Assistance Board. You have ripped out the State Emergency Relief Board and the employes of the State Emergency Relief Board. Every person in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania who has had anything to do with relief has now been ripped out to make way for the appointment of thirteen million dollars worth of political jobs. You have amended the bill from its original form so that you can collect from those employes.

I know that any political machine that has national ambitions can well use $650,000, which is the recognized amount which would be raised from the thirteen million dollars payroll. I think that it is a shame and a crime that relief should now be put into politics and that politics should now be put into relief.

The Mother's Assistance Board and trustees and employes have been as a whole non-political. They have been experienced, efficient, and have worked at their jobs for a considerable length of time, but in making this Conference report you have taken away the provision which would have transferred them along with their duties to the new Board.

You have now ripped out everybody that has anything to do with relief, and the people of Pennsylvania can arrive at only one conclusion from the bill and the manner in which it is amended, and that is that you do expect to put politics into relief and put relief into politics.

I think that it might be well said that no political machine that is above cracking down upon its legislative members is above cracking its whip upon the poor, the aged and the blind who must accept the money of this Commonwealth.

I say reverently and sincerely, upon the passage of these relief bills, God save the Commonwealth.

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, about the only difference in this bill since it left this House is the item covering employes in the Mother's Assistance. I take issue with the gentleman from Dauphin in saying that we are ripping out the employes of the Mother's Assistance. It provides the same feature for the employes under the Mother's Assistance as it provides in the act for those under the Emergency Relief Board. It provides that the Secretary of Public Assistance and local boards shall have power to appoint additional employes for the purpose of carrying on the work of the Department of Public Assistance and of local boards until such time as appointees have been qualified by examination and have been appointed under the provisions of this act.

During the past we very well know that none of these employes, either the employes of the Mother's Assistance Board or the employes of the Emergency Relief Board have been ripped out in wholesale fashion, and I feel confident that these same employes will be kept and will be given an opportunity to qualify under an examination. I do not believe that we can call this ripping out of employes, and I ask the members of the House to vote for this Conference report.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I presume that I could gloat over the report of the Conference Committee. I have been intimately connected with the various histories of these bills, and I above all know of one which was successfully reported to the floor of this House, the Ripper Bill, removing the Poor Boards in this State. I know that in the Committee of Welfare there were certain members that were particularly interested in retaining in the service the employes of the Mother's Assistance Boards.

I have not forgotten, and neither have the members of this Conference Committee forgotten, that there was an assurance given to them that the various employes of the Mother's Assistance Boards would be retained in the service upon their successful completion of a non-competitive examination. I am very frank to say that the only reason this House ever had the Committee of Welfare report to them a bill that did rip the Poor Boards, was upon the assurance that those employes would be given the opportunity to qualify in a non-competitive examination.

Now, of course there has come home to these members the fact from this Conference report that their employes must stand a competitive examination. In other words, Mr. Speaker, these employes are going to be given the same course of treatment as have the employes of the Poor Boards throughout the State of Pennsylvania, and it is for that reason that I say, Mr. Speaker, that these men, who, of course expected and are willing as the result of that expectation to sacrifice the Poor Boards for the employes of the Mother's Assistance Boards, that they are now being given the same course of treatment as has been given to the Poor Board.

I do not propose, Mr. Speaker, to break faith with the proposition that these employes should be retained. I feel that they should be retained; they have all the qualifications heretofore required by the Department, and having met those qualifications, Pennsylvania has consistently received its appropriation. In other words, they have qualified as required to be qualified under the Federal laws, and there is no existing reason why they should be ripped out. That is the reason why I cannot agree with the Conference Report. Otherwise, perhaps I could go along with the Conference report solely because, as I stated before, I can gloat over the manner in which these men have been misled. There has been a breach of faith on the part of the officials who have assured these individuals who reported the Ripper Bill to this House that they would be protected.

I am saying, Mr. Speaker, that there has been no greater breach of faith ever perpetrated in this Commonwealth up to the present time, and because of that breach of faith, because I agreed with these men that I am not willing to vote for this Conference report.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have heard the dying defense of the Poor Boards in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Poor Boards have now perished. The crepe is on the door and Pennsylvania is now on the threshold of relieving itself of an antiquated system of relief, and in its place substituting the greatest governmental advancement that this Commonwealth has made in many decades.

I see no reason why the presently constituted employes of the Mother's Assistance Fund, who by the bill are carried over into the system until January 1938, and who are then given an examination which undoubtedly must be based upon the work that they are presently doing, if the group which is now in there cannot be successful in that examination, they do not deserve to continue to be in the service of the Mother's Assistance Fund. I say that same theory applies to each and every other form of assistance that we have taken over under this particular piece of legislation. I say to the members of this House that we cannot let the Poor Boards hide behind the petticoats of the Mother's Assistance Fund.

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker, I just wish to answer some of the statements of the gentleman from Monroe. The gentleman from Monroe would lead this House to believe that the Committee on Welfare made an agreement, in order to get the Poor Board ripper out, on certain provisions in this bill. I disagree with the gentleman from Monroe, and I may ask him, as he says it is a breach of faith, I may ask him if he in any way aided in bringing to the floor of this House the Poor Board ripper.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. TUMELTY. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that business transacted in the Committee cannot be broadcast on this floor.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. The gentleman asked the gentleman from Monroe as to his part, but not the action of the Committee. It is up to the gentleman from Monroe to answer if he so desires.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. O'Keefe, desires to know distinctly what was the understanding, not with the Committee on Welfare, but with individual members of the Committee on Welfare?

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker, if I understood the statement of the gentleman from Monroe, he said that the Committee on Welfare had broken its word.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I did not at any time state that the Committee on Welfare had an understanding, but I did state that certain members of the Committee on Welfare did know and did expect that the members and the employes of the Mother's Assistance Boards would remain as the employes of this system upon a non-competitive examination, and that the Committee on Welfare so wrote it into the bill.

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Monroe.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Monroe permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. The gentleman may proceed, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker, did not the gentleman from Monroe say that this bill was in some way connected with the bringing out of the Poor Board ripper?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I did, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'KEEFE. Mr. Speaker, was the gentleman a party to that agreement?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I was not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'KEEFE. That is all, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know from the gentleman from York, whether he made the statement that the employes of the Mother's Assistance Fund would be transferred to the new Board with the same right which any other citizen in the Commonwealth has, in addition to any other right that any other citizen of the Commonwealth has.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, as I understand this bill, it does not contemplate the entire destruction of the Mother's Assistance Fund system that has been a credit to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and as I further understand this bill, the functions that are now being carried out by the Mother's Assistance Fund employes will be taken over by the Department of Assistance and Local Boards; that the employes of the Mother's Assistance Fund will be provisional employes under this act, and I think there is the time limitation of January 1, 1938, at which time they must comply with the merit requirements of this act. I did say that if those employes who are provisional employes and who are now presently connected with the Mother's Assistance Fund, with the experience that they have in their present positions and with the experience that they will gain between now and January 1, 1938, if they cannot be successful in the competitive examination, they have no right to be attached to the Mother's Assistance Board in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I agree with the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, in his last statement, but that has nothing to do with the situation. The fact is that the situation to which the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen is referring, is exactly what the Conference Committee took out of this report. In other words, when the Local Board turns over these employes, they become provisional employes and those employes may be chosen from anybody in Pennsylvania. They may not be restricted to the group from the Mother's Assistance Boards. They can be chosen from anybody in Pennsylvania, and that is why I stated before that this was a political set-up, in order that the organization could appoint anybody that they wanted to appoint, and to entirely disregard all employes that were in the Mothers Assistance Board.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, the interpretation of the gentleman from Dauphin is the interpretation that one would place upon the bill in order to cast, shall I say very derogatory aspersions upon the actions of the Conference Committee. As practical legislators and as practical people we know that when the Mother's Assistance Fund act expires and the Department of Public Assistance Act becomes effective, there is only one place they can go for employes, and that is the present employes of the Mother's Assistance Fund Board.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to cast any reflections upon the members of the Conference Committee. I was one of the members myself incidentally who did not sign the report, but the same is true of the members who did sign the report. I am stating that Mr. Cohen in what he has been attempting to represent to this House, is mistaken. I do not mean that he is deliberately misleading the House, but he is mistaken as to what the provisions of the bill are, because the provision that was taken out by the Committee was the provision that provided for the transfer of the employes of the Mother's Assistance Fund, and the Board can now hire anybody in Pennsylvania as the employes of the Mother's Assistance Fund, and the present employes have no more right than have any other citizens of the Commonwealth.

Mr. SAMUEL A. WEISS. Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question.

The motion was seconded by Messrs. Robinson, Shoemaker, Mellott, Simon, Siegel, Coakley, Broad, Elpern, Moomaw, Sarraf, Vogt, Costanzo, Walsh, Shugarts, Rush, Kilroy, Mooney, John J. Baker, Keenan, Ostroff, Skale, James A. Smith, Corrigan and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question be now put?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BAINE and Mr. WOODSIDE.

Mr. LONGAKER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. HARKINS filed the following reason for his vote:

I am voting "aye" on this bill because I regard it as a good bill with the exception of the provision which requires competitive examinations for present employes of the Mothers' Assistance Fund and the State Emergency Relief Board, which provision is one with which I do not sympathize and deplore.

Mr. TRONZO filed the following reason for his vote:

I am voting "aye" on this bill, but regret exceedingly that this measure contains provisions which will make it necessary for the employes of the Mothers' Assistance Fund and the State Emergency Relief Board to take competitive examinations.

SENATE MESSAGE

Section 18 Repealer The following acts and their amendments and supplements are hereby repealed

The act approved the tenth day of July one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred ninety-three) entitled "An act providing for assistance to certain mothers providing for the appointment of boards of trustees for the several counties of the Commonwealth and for the appointment of a State supervisor and assistants and fixing the salaries of such State supervisors and assistants defining the powers and duties of boards of trustees including the power of appointing assistants and investigators and the distribution of funds at their disposal providing for the apportionment of the State appropriation among the several counties and requiring counties coming under the provisions of the act to appropriate certain moneys and providing penalties"

The act approved the nineteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws eighty-eight) entitled "An act creating the State Emergency Relief Board consisting of the Governor the Lieutenant Governor the Auditor General State Treasurer and the Speaker of the House of Representatives prescribing its powers and duties empowering the Governor to disburse moneys received from the Federal Government for the relief of the unemployed in accordance with plans adopted by the board and making an appropriation" Provided That said act shall remain in force and effect for such time and to the extent necessary for the expenditure by the Governor of the moneys in or accruing to the Federal Unemployment Relief Fund in accordance with such program pertaining to unemployment relief as shall be promulgated by the Department of Public Assistance

The act approved the ninth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws six hundred twenty-one) (act number two hundred twenty) entitled "An act providing for and regulating subject to certain restrictions limitations and liabilities the granting of pensions by the Commonwealth to certain blind persons providing for the administration of this act by the Department of Welfare the trustees who administer mothers' assistance in the several counties or by other trustees in certain cases authorizing the appointment of trustees for the pensions payable to certain individuals authorizing the Department of Welfare to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States government for assistance to the blind and providing penalties"

The act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (Pamphlet Laws twenty-eight) entitled "An act providing for and regulating assistance to and the burial of certain aged indigent persons and the administration of this act by the Department of Welfare and the boards of trustees of the mothers' assistance funds of the several counties authorizing the Department of Welfare to cooperate with and to accept and disburse moneys received from the United States government for assistance to such persons authorizing the appointment of trustees for certain persons providing for the recovery of moneys expended for assistance in certain cases prohibiting political activity by employes of the board providing substitute provisions in case Federal grants for old age assistance shall fail for any reason providing penalties and repealing inconsistent acts"

All other acts or parts of acts general local or special inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to call the attention of the membership of the House to a Printer's error in the report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 883, Printer's No. 880. The membership will remember when the bill was presented to the House for third reading and final passage, the House granted unanimous consent to strike from the bill the provision that would allow the blind upon application not to exceed $100 to meet the cost of paying for surgical treatment. It seems that this strike-out amendment is still stricken out in the report of the Committee on Conference. However, due to a printer's error, the report as printed indicates that that provision is still in the bill, and if the membership will refer to page 11 of the report and insert in their bill the following corrections the report before the House will then correspond to the actual conference report:

On page 11, line 28, after the word "year" and before the word "and" insert a bracket; "["

On page 11, line 29, after the word "may" insert a bracket; "]"

On the following page, page 12, strike out lines 1, 2, 3 and 4 by placing a bracket before the word "upon" on line 1 and after the word "blind" on line 4.

On the question recurring,

Will the house adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, during this session of the Legislature we have, I think, enjoyed very cordial relations in this House. I think it was said on the floor of the House that we have fought our battles and fought them hard but that we bore no ill will nor have we carried them beyond that, but I do feel that the demonstration here tonight, in an attempt to choke off debate and to use the steam roller, was unfair and unjustified, and, therefore, we instituted dilatory tactics. I only want to say to the members of the House that if there is to be a repetition—we have no desire to prolong debate unnecessarily, but where we consider it our duty to debate we intend to debate, and if that is denied us then the membership of the House will have to take the consequences, because we will use every tactic that we can use. There are many that can drag us along for a long time and the Republican minority is willing to stay here as long as it is necessary to stay here, but we will not be trampled upon nor steamrollered.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

RESOLUTION

COMMENDING MOTHER KATHERINE DREXEL

Mr. WALSH offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, June 5, 1937.

Whereas, Mother Katherine Drexel was born into a prominent and wealthy Pennsylvania family; and

Whereas, She renounced the glamor and privileges to which her wealth and station in life entitled her, to enter the religious life for the purpose of devoting her life to the education of Negroes and Indians; and

Whereas, She has expended of her fortune for the Negroes in Pennsylvania and in the foundation of her community the vast sum of $8,000,000; and

Whereas, She has performed a great service in the education and social uplift of the Negroes of this Commonwealth.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, That this House do commend Mother Katherine Drexel for her useful and valiant services, and salute her as one of Pennsylvania's outstanding women; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Mother Katherine Drexel.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 935.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 5, 1937.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 935, Printer's No. 282, entitled "An act requiring counties of the third class to repay moneys heretofore recovered on forfeited recognizances in certain cases and providing for the recapture of such moneys from future fines and forfeited recognizances payable to law and library associations."

This bill would require counties of the third class to repay moneys heretofore recovered on forfeited recognizances and turned over to any law or library association for the purchase of books, where the defendant in the case subsequently surrendered himself to the jurisdiction of the proper court or was apprehended and returned to the court.

There are no facts which would justify to approval of a bill of this type. Its effect would be to nullify the very purpose for which bail is required. If approved, it would encourage persons charged with crime to fail to appear in court at the time required for trial, and would give them power to determine when their cases would be tried, regardless of the attitude of the court and the district attorney.

The purpose of bail is to make certain the appearance of a person charged with crime in court at the term that his case is to be called. His bail guarantees such appearance. In the absence of such bail, he is committed to jail to await trial.

This bill gives an undue, unwarranted and unjustifiable advantage to persons charged with crime, and to their bondsmen. If such leniency is to be extended to such individuals, and if the present rigid requirements regarding forfeiture of bail are to be relaxed, then there is no reason why the same should not apply throughout the State and inure to the benefit of all bondsmen.

In addition to these objections, there is serious doubt as to the constitutionality of this bill. First, it attempts, by implication, to amend a special or local law without complying with the requirements of the Constitution regarding such amendment. Furthermore, its provisions would apply only to those third class counties which pay moneys collected on forfeited recognizances into the law and library association fund. This, in my opinion, makes the bill itself special legislation. Article III, Section 8 of the Constitution requires that notice of the intention to introduce a special or local bill must be published thirty days prior to its introduction in the General Assembly. Failure to comply with this requirement in this case makes the bill unconstitutional.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GEORGE H. EARLE.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. BOHN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 2187, Senate Bill No. 678, Printer's No. 421, entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by providing that townships of the second class shall have the power to develop their own water supply," was defeated on final passage on Saturday, June 5, 1937, be reconsidered.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran, vote on the final passage of the bill?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Kane, vote on the final passage of the bill?

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

One the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. TURNER and Mr. BOYER and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this seems to me something like the story of the funeral where the woman from Los Angeles with others was waiting for the minister to come in and who thought she might just as well get up and talk about Los Angeles in the interim. I feel that while we are waiting here I might get up, because it will not delay the proceedings, and say something about this measure. No. 1177 is the general appropriation bill, and in the Conference report, which I have signed, I noticed they have spelled my name wrong. I had hoped that it might be possible for me to make a further analysis of the general appropriation bill in this session, but being short handed and with many other jobs to do, it has been a physical impossibility to check the items as I would have liked to have done. I want to thank the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen, the Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, for his continued courtesy to me as a member of the Committee on Appropriations, which he first instituted in the 1935 session, giving me the opportunity to sit with the sub-committee and listen to statements from the different departments on their requests under the appropriation bill. It is impossible for the Legislature accurately to check requests from the departments unless the Legislature were to have a very extensive force and begin the work at a much earlier period than we do. It is impossible to do anything more than skim the surface in going over the budgets of the different departments. It is one of the most essential jobs of the Legislature, if the Legislature is to do its duty conscientiously and if the Legislature is to make the proper checks upon the departments. The Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations must perform this duty, and the gentleman from York, as Chairman of the committee, in doing so, has been willing to follow suggestions, to offer every opportunity to go into the facts, to demand from the departments any figures that I requested, and I, therefore, at this time could not do anything else but support the general appropriation bill, which is necessary to run the departments of the State.

Notwithstanding that fact there are a number of things in the general appropriation bill which while I will vote for it I do not want to be misconstrued as preventing my criticism of some of the items in this bill either now or later. I think if you will take the statement which was prepared by the Appropriations Committee, you will find that large amounts are being appropriated to some of our departments, amounts which are almost staggering in comparison with the former figures of appropriations to those departments during previous years. The appropriation bill, it is true, as it came from the Senate has about a two million and a half increase over the amount as shown in the House, but when you consider that the Department of Labor and Industry will have an appropriation of $4,266,300, which is as I recall it almost a three million dollar increase over the amount which it has had in the past, and when you consider that Revenue will have $4,106,700, which as it left the House was a $600,000 increase over the former amounts which the department had, I believe that every thinking member of the Legislature will agree with the statements I have made, that we must fight eternally to control the departments if we are to keep government within bounds. I realize that a great many of these figures are experimental. I think they have been placed very high, but on the other hand many of the departments are assuming new obligations, new duties and new functions. For instance, the Director of Relief or Assistance, as he is called now, I felt that in his appropriations he had pyramided; in other words that he had taken what it cost to handle relief and had added what he thought it was going to cost to take care of outdoor relief, Mothers' Assistance, the aged, and so forth, but when you consider the large amount of money that he will undoubtedly expend for Administration, which I believe will run something over ten million dollars, you can see what a tremendous sum of money that is for a department to handle. So, as I say, I am going to vote in support of the measure, although I think that the appropriations to some of the departments are beyond the figures which they will reach. It must be, on my part, based on experience and a study of the situation, because as I have already stated it is impossible for an individual member of the Legislature to secure an adequate force of assistants and accountants to work it out for him.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I personally have no debate on the appropriation bill. There is no doubt that the bill at the present time is not entirely in the actual shape which will represent the figures or the amounts of money that will be required in the functioning of the government. However, it is apparently about as well as the Legislature can do until a definite study is made of the costs of the new departments and the new responsibilities that have been imposed upon those departments. As we all know the Governor will have an opportunity for thirty days to ascertain the exact, new responsibilities that we have placed upon the various administrative offices of the State and during that time a study will be made and I feel sure that some of the remarks that the gentleman from Delaware has made regarding the bill will be answered.

I feel, also, that I would be remiss did I not thank the gentleman from Delaware for the assistance he has given me as Chairman of the Appropriations Committee and for the assistance he has given to all the members of the House by making available to the Appropriations Committee his experience and knowledge. I sincerely thank the gentleman for it was more or less under his guidance in the 1935 Session that we were able to draft the appropriation bill and it was also under his advice and guidance that we were able to rectify some of the abuses that were existent in the 1937 appropriation measures. I also wish to thank the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Gerard, who assisted us in the work.

I ask the membership of the House to vote for the bill, as the bill contains appropriations which are necessary for the government.

On the question recurring.

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?
